TRANSIT OFFICIAL RAPS DECK STUDY

Kashin's Attack On 'Gobbledygook' Costs Kettenhofen's Resolution Votes

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, at a meeting of the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday, lost a move to neutralize a resolution of the Marin County Transit District. He was on the short end of a 4-2 vote of the transit district which called for a halt of the engineering study on a second deck, and for an immediate study of ferryboat service.

Kettenhofen introduced a resolution at yesterday's meeting of the baord of supervisors which expressed conditional support of the second deck idea and urged going ahead with a controversial $265,000 study of its feasibility. He appeared to have the support of Supervisor William A. Gnoss and John F. McInnis.

Midway in the debate, however, with Supervisors Peter H. Behr and Thomas T. Storer opposing Kettenhofen's reversal of the Transit District's no-second-deck stand, Seymour Kashin, the county's new transit director, effectively shot down Kettenhofen's proposal.

READS RESUME

Kashin read a resume of San Francisco-Marin county transportation studies, some of them conflicting, going back to 1951, and said, "Frankly, I find it extremely difficult to separate engineering facts from political fancy."

Kashin pointed out that the $265,000 second deck study by the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, does not include a look into the feasibility of railroad transit across the bridge. There have been previous studies of this, and they conflict.

Said Kashin: "There have been millions of dollars spent on studies since 1951 and the result is that we have a collection of gobbledygook. This is quite disturbing."

CHANGES VOTE

His comments changed the vote of Supervisor Gnoss, who came prepared to support Kettenhofen's resolution. Gnoss expressed his confidenc in Kashin, and said he would withhold his vote until Kashin has a chance to come up with some opinions of his own on the subject.

In the end, the Supervisors voted only on a portion of Kettenhofen's resolution giving a vote of confidence to Marin county's two directors on the bridge board, Thomas D. Hardcastle and George H. Ludy. The vote was unanimous.

Behr, who voted with the transit district majority to oppose the second deck study, said, "Nobody wants to say publicly that they are for a second deck on the Golden Gate Bridge." He said completion of the engineering study would "put us within a hair's breadth of a second deck on the Golden Gate Bridge."

IN AGREEMENT

McInnis, who supported Kettenhofen, said that all of the supervisors were in agreement that a bus system takes first priority among Marin's commuter options. He pointed out that both of Marin's representatives on the Golden Gate Bridge board voted for a second deck study.

McInnis said that the "best interests" of Marin County are not necessarily those of San Francisco, whose Supervisors have voted against the second deck.

Roundup Of U.S. Elections

COMBINED AP & UPI

The heir-designate to San Francisco Mayor John F. Shelley — attorney Joseph Alioto — handily won an 18-man mayoralty race at the polls yesterday, and the peace proposition "P" on the ballot was defeated in a decision which was watched nation-wide.

Elsewhere in the nation's off-year elections, Negro candidates scored significant breakthroughs. Boston's first would-be woman mayor's stand against school integration and fair housing cost her the race and Kentucky elected a Republican governor for the first time in 24 years. (See detailed stories on pages 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12.)

Here's a summary of results from some of yesterday's most important elections:

Mayors — Democrat Carl B. Stokes narrowly defeated Republican Seth C. Taft in Cleveland to become the first Negro elected mayor of a major U.S. city; Democrat Richard G. Hatcher, a Negro, defeated Republican Joseph Radigan in Gary, Ind.

Democratic incumbent James H. J. Tate defeated Republican Dist. Atty. Arlen Specter in Philadelphia; Kevin H. White, Massachusetts secretary of state defeated Louise Day Hicks by 11,000 votes of 190,000 cast in Boston's nonpartisan run-off; Republican Ann Uccello became the first woman mayor of Hartford, Conn., defeating Democratic incumbent George B. Kinsella.

Mayor Richard C. Lee won an eighth consecutive term in New Haven, Conn.; Democrat Thomas J. D'Alesandro III, son of a former three-term Baltimore mayor, won the city's top post by a 5-1 margin.

San Mateo Voters Kind Of Confused

REDWOOD CITY, (AP)—Several hundred confused citizens showed up at familiar polling places yesterday to vote in the San Mateo County special congressional election, in which Shirley Temple Black is one of 10 candidates.

They were surprised to learn that the congressional election is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 14, and that there wasn't any election on Tuesday, Nov. 7.

Fierce Battles Flare Up And Down Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — A fierce U.S. Marine battle with North Vietnamese troops, Communist attacks up and down the country on provincial capitals and refugee hamlets, and heavy air strikes against North Vietnam that cost three American warplanes were reported today.

U.S. Marines charged through a screen of American tear gas to take a heavily fortified village which the North Vietnamese abandoned yesterday after nearly 24 hours of hard fighting and bombardment in the coastal lowlands 27 miles south of Da Nang.

The Marines reported 22 of their men killed and 58 wounded, most of them in a savage machine-gun crossfire from the enemy. The Leathernecks said they found 36 enemy bodies, but terrified villagers said the retreating Communists carried away at least two dozen of their dead.

Communist units also showed increased ferocity in meeting U.S. probes in which 30 Americans and 78 of the enemy were reported killed at Loc Ninh, 71 miles northwest of Saigon, and near Dak To, in the central highlands.

The step-up Communist activity and in Red opposition to U.S. search operations appeared to indicate that the Communists are not being as elusive as they have been and may be moving into positions for new thrusts on several fronts now that the monsoon rains have moved north. Intelligence reports indicate there are at least five Communist divisions in central Vietnam that may be poised for new offensives.

In the Mekong Delta, the Viet Cong launched a series of mortar and ground assaults before dawn on an airfield, a South Vietnamese special forces company with American advisers and the provincial capital of Cao Lanh. Fifty mortar rounds slammed into the provincial capital, killing two children and an adult and wounding 68 others.

In the air, Air Force fighter-bombers flew to within 21 miles of Red China' border yesterday to again attack one of North Vietnam's two rail links with China. Navy planes hit the An Ninh Ngoai shipyard and repair facility 12 miles northwest of Haiphong, apparently for the first time.

Ground fire shot down a one-man F-105 Thunderchief and a two-man F4C Phantom, whose crews are missing. The two-man crew of an F-100 Supersabre was rescued from the China Sea despite efforts of North Vietnamese gunboats to capture them.

Jackie Asks After Fate Of Prisoners

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Prince Norodom Sihanouk disclosed today he told Mrs. John F. Kennedy that North Vietnam could not release the American fliers it holds prisoner "because it would be an encouragement to continue the bombing."

"They also consider the pilots as war criminals," Cambodia's ruling prince told a news conference after Mrs. Kennedy flew to Thailand.

The prince, whose government maintains close ties with North Vietnam and the Viet Cong, said Mrs. Kennedy had brought up the subject of American prisoners and inquired particularly about American airmen held in North Vietnam and about Donald Ramsey, an AID official captured in South Vietnam almost two years ago. Several Americans taken by the Viet Cong have been released through Cambodia in the past.

Mrs. Kennedy, looking a bit tired after her six-day stay in Cambodia, returned to Bangkok aboard a U.S. Air Force plane escorted to the Thai border by two Soviet-built Cambodian MIGs. After three days of social functions, sightseeing and shopping, she and her party leave for home early Saturday.

Sihanouk said three American Army sergeants the Viet Cong promised last week to release

State May Drop Brazil Ranch Buy

No Reply To Park Site Bid

By PAUL W. PETERZELL

Pastoral Franks Valley, the key to expansion of Mount Tamalpais State Park, may be lost to private developers by the end of this month if the Southern California organization which owns most of it continues to reject the state's offer for the land, the Independent-Journal learned today.

The final state offer made two months ago for the 1,835-acre Brazil Ranch and 305-acre Souza Ranch reportedly was $3,012,000, of $688,000 below the organization's demand for $3.7 million.

STATE IMPATIENT?

The prospect of the state withdrawing its offer was posed by H. C. Vincent Jr., chief land agent for the state Department of General Services. The department handles land acquisition for the Department of Parks and Recreation.

"We're getting real close to having waited long enough for a response," Vincent told the Independent-Journal, "and my own guess is we ought to withdraw it or ask them what they're going to do about it."

He said that before withdrawing the offer, his department will refer the matter back to its policy-making body, the State Public Works Board. Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, is a member of the board.

FUNDS ALLOTED

The State Park Commission allocated $4 million one year ago to expand the park to the west into Franks Valley. About $3.6 million remains after purchase of the 310-acre Macalester College property and other smaller parcels, Vincent said.

The Southern California organization that owns most of the valley calls itself the First Christian Church of America. It bought the ranches last year, reportedly for about $2 million, from a syndicate headed by John Fell Sevenson.

The church group referred the

Marin Incumbents All Retain Seats

Voters preferred incumbent board members and in two cases larger boards at six special district elections in Marin yesterday.

The heaviest voting was in the North Marin County Water District where three incumbents were re-elected.

Unofficial results were Franklin Gustafson, (Inc.), 1,483, Arnold E. Heise, (Inc.), 1,441, Emil Renati, (Inc.), 1,300, George A. Amaroli, 1,201, C. R. Fedrick, 937, John M. Lane, 796, and A. L. Gieleghem, 517.

Voters in the newly annexed portion of the district in the Inverness-Olema-Point Reyes Station area, defeated a proposition to form an improvement district to finance an engineering study of water needs by a vote of 286 no to 224 yes.

In the Novato Fire Protection District voters re-elected two incumbents from a field of eight, and passed a measure to increase the district board from three to five members.

Unofficial returns were Henry V. Alvernaz, (Inc.), 1,235, Joseph F. Silveira, (Inc.), 1,114, Donald F. Donohue, 387, Charles P. Davies and Richard W. Price, each 354, Harry Leff Jr., 275, Victor L. Wright, 267, and H. James Mumma, 192.

The vote on increasing board membership was 1,088 yes, 959 no.

The closest race for a board seat was in the Kentfield Fire Protection District, with three candidates for two seats. Unofficial returns showed the lone challengeer George W. Rust Jr., out of the running by five votes.

The tally was William J. Williams, (Inc.) 481, Arthur L. Poganski, (Inc.) 394 and Rust, 389.

Two incumbents were re-elected from a field of five in the race for seats on the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District Board.

The unoffical returns were William E. Brook (Inc.) 610, John E. Duckett, (Inc.) 501, Anne M. Reagan, 297, Richard T. Tarrant, 206, and Arthur B. Carpenter, 146.

Voters in the Bolinas Community Public Utility District approved increasing the district board from three to five members by a wide margin, 79 yes to 8 no.

Jose A. Silva, board president, said the board will appoint two new members, and their terms will be determined by the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

In the Sleepy Hollow Fire Protection District, voters re-elected two incumbents from a field of three.

The unofficial returns were Edward Simpkins, (Inc.) 150, Alfred A. Nannizzi, (Inc.) 120, and Ralph A. Carey, 91.

Father Details Discipline Woes In Sausalito School

By ALAN JONES

One of his daughters was beaten up by two girls and another suffered a concussion when she slipped on an apple core thrown by shylarking children, Chief Warrant Officer John H. Albright said today.

Those two incidents at Richardson Bay School in Sausalito were the main reason Albright on Monday asked to transfer his three daughters from Sausalito to Reed Union School District.

The Sausalito School District Board huddled with Albright in closed session for an hour, then returned to open session to announce the transfer request was denied.

Albright had pulled his girls out of school two weeks ago, but sent them back Tuesday after the board action.

Albright today blamed the incidents involving his daughters on lack of discipline and supervision in the school.

He said in the apple core incident, children were throwing the cores in the classroom before recess, and his daughter fell when returning from recess. The class was being run by student teachers, he said. He contended the cores should have been picked up.

His other daughter, he said, was attacked after a physical education class. He said the girls had finished the class and were not under supervision before going to their next classes.

Albright also has complained Monday that the pledge of allegiance was not given in all classes, but said today his children since told him the pledge had been restored in classrooms.

"Very few people would be qualified" to tell the school board what action to take, Albright said, and the protest letter was not a call for action but intended to "make the board aware of the situation."

Most of the incidents reported occurred at Richardson Bay School. Albright said there might be racial friction involved, but added: "I don't believe it's the whole problem. I blame it on a complete lack of discipline."

The schools have problems as

Card Returnees Facing Call-Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—College students, who have turned in their draft cards to Selective Service offices as a protest gesture against the Vietnam war, face the prospect of immedate call-ups.

Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, draft director, has told local Selective Service boards that college deferments should be denied men who refuse to carry their classification cards or who physically interfere with armed services recruiting officers visiting college campuses.

Hershey said registrants without their cards should be reclassified as available for service, with their names advanced to the top of the draft lists.

Civilian Dogfight Over Hamilton's Use

The Marin County Aviation Commission split last night on a proposed resolution that would postpone construction of an air strip parallel to Hamilton Air Force Base and development of an adjoining industrial park. (Another story, page 13.)

The proposal was offered to put the suggestion of a major airport - industrial park "into proper perspective and to insure that its goals are accomplished in an orderly manner," but three commissioners opposed it.

Commissioner Benjamin R. Ostlind, long an advocate of a parallel strip at HAFB, angrily charged that the resolution "was totally out of line."

Commissioners passed a resolution in July stating that creation of an industrial park and general aviation complex, south of Bel Marin Keys and east of the base is a primary aim of Marin County.

Last night Chairman Joseph W. Wright proposed a follow-up resolution recommending that Marin County supervisors resolve that:

1. Such a facility cannnot be expected to become a reality sooner than five to ten years because of "enormous fiscal and eingineering problems."

2. Until such time, the present Marin County Airport will continue to be expanded and improved to its maximum potential to justify the "judgment used in expending the large sums of money that have been spent in establishing the present airport."

3. Because of its proximity to rail, highway and water service, the present airport and the area sourrounding it will meet the needs of Marin for some time to come.

4. That formal negotiations be initiated by Marin County with the Air Force to determine the possibility of future joint use of HAFB landing strip and control facilities, since "all indications at this time are that uses at Hamilton are being expanded rather than reduced."

5. That an experienced firm study the economic and engineering feasibility of the proposed installation adjacent to HAFB.

6. That, although the prospect is that the proposed airport would include freight and passenger service, "there is, at this time, no valid evidence of need in the near future for such an airport to serve a county of 187,000." Effort should be made to determine the need for a large airport, and if one exisits, the county should commence planning for it.

The commission deadlocked 3-3 when Commissioners Tris Coffin, Richard Nave and Wright backed the resolution and Commissioners Melville Dickson,

A Revised Junior College Fund Law

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A law designed to eliminate most of the question marks in paying for California's needed new junior college buildings went into effect today.

But the new financing plan contains a controversial section that raises questions about the full law's survival. After 1969-70, junior college trustees will be able to raise taxes for building without approval of district voters.

Some legislators are objecting to similar provisions in the 1967 session's $145 million school aid law for elementary and high school districts.

"This is hardly the legislative response the people would expect in a property taxpayers rebellion," commented Sen. John G. Schmitz, R-Tustin.

Schmitz, nine other Senate Republicans and two Democrats have sought repeal of the elimination of elementary and high school tax ceilings scheduled in four years under the school aid law sponsored by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood.

Schmitz — a junior college teacher — says his target in next year's regular legislative session will be Unruh's law. "It's still a bad bill," he says of the junior college law. "But I would hate to see a fight over it jeopardize repealing Unruh's law."

The new junior college law provides for 50-50 sharing of junior college construction costs between the state and local districts after 1968. The colleges will be eligible provided they submit 10-year development plans and receive approval from the State Finance and Education departments.

If the law survives intact during coming legislative sessions, junior college trustees still will face close questioning over building projects.

The colleges will have to receive legislative approval of individual projects, even though the state administration has accepted their development plans.

And the legislature will have to find much of the money for the program. The 1967 legislature approved a $65 million bond issue, scheduled for next June's ballot.

But even if voters approve the bonds, legislators and junior college trustees will be asking about the source of the rest of the money.

Reagan Begins Job To Cure Medi-Cal Ills

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Armed with therapy suggested by his task force of businessmen, Gov. Ronald Reagan has launched a 21-point attack on the financial ills of California's program of health care for the poor.

Reagan said the economies in Medi-Cal, suggested by his Survey on Efficiency and Cost Control, will be "substantial" although no dollar estimate can be made now.

The recommendations of the governor's 200 volunteer task force concentrate on tightening control and administration of the multimillion dollar program begun in 1965.

But some would affect services such as dental care, hearing aids, eyeglasses, long hospital stays, and elective surgery.

And Reagan ordered negotiation of "usual and customary" fees with doctors to "provide a reasonable and realistic control of high cost physicians and generally stabilize the cost of physicians services to the program."

Some critics have alleged that doctors have taken advantage of the Medi-Cal program by charging higher fees than they would an individual who is not a recipient.

Reagan said the task force report "greatly justifies my faith that the leaders of business and industry in Califorina can make major contributions to a more efficient and economical state government."

The proposals are being put into effect immediately where ever possible, Reagan said. Others will have to get legislative approval.

One of the recommendations is creation of a separate Department of Health Care Services to operate the Medi-Cal program, now run by the Office of Health Care Services in the Health and Welfare Agency.

The Reagan administration earlier imposed cuts in Medi-Cal services totalling $210 million in an effort to keep costs within a $600 million ceiling outlined by the legislature. But those cuts have been challenged in the courts and a decision is pending in the State Supreme Court.

Clash On Steps Of Sproul Hall

BERKELEY (AP) — The Sproul Hall steps at the University of California in Berkeley were the scene of a clash yesterday between the Afro-American Union and Volition, the campus' most prominent conservative group.

Afro-American representatives seized the steps, which had been reserved for a noon rally by Volition. The conservatives countered with quickly made protest signs.

One read: "Black Fascism must go."

The university administration, in effect, canceled the rally, by refusing to provide loudspeakers and microphone.

The Afro-American Union had tried to negotiate for a split of the allotted 50-minute rally time.

Simple Rites Tomorrow For Garner

UVALDE, Tex. (AP) — Friends and neighbors paid last respects today to former Vice President John Nance Garner, who left Washington in 1941 swearing he would never cross the Potomac River again—and never did.

Garner died early yesterday, just 15 days short of his 99th birthday.

"Cactus Jack," as he was known during most of his 46 years as an elected official in Austin and Washington, lay in state at a Uvalde funeral home. Simple services are set for tomorrow afternoon.

Garner, with a bright red carnation in hisc oat lapel, lay in nation in his coat lapel, lay in ket of copper.

Hundreds who knew him as a Texas legislator, as a congressman for 30 years, and as vice president under Franklin D. Roosevelt from 1932 to 1940, sent condolences.

"Few have given so long a time and fewer still have used their years to such advantage," President Lyndon B. Johnson said in Washington.

Garner, who had been looking forward to his 99th birthday Nov. 22 and then to a 100th birthday, died quietly without apparent pain following a coronary occulsion.

"It was just old age," said Don Large, 24, who had been one of Garner's paid companions for almost four years. Large will be one of 10 pallbearers.

Bank Robbed Of $33,518

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Five gunmen wearing stocking masks burst into a Bank of America branch with drawn revolvers yesterday and escaped with $33,518 in what police believed was a repeat trip to the cash drawers.

Last June 26, four gunmen fled with $5,992 from the bank in suburban Pacoima. Bank manager Mervyn Hoffman was wounded in that robbery when a bullet creased his cheek.

In yesterday's holdup, which detectives believed was pulled by the same group, the gunmen forced five customers and nine employes to lie on the floor.

Three of the bandits leaped over the counter and cleaned out three teller's cages and the cash box of the vault teller. They fled in a stolen car later found abandoned half a mile from the bank.

all schools do, conceded Sausalito Schools Supt. Phillip W. Schneider, but he said the Richardson Bay staff "is doing a damn good job" and deals with incidents "quickly and efficiently."

Schneider contended that the district has incidents, but not many more than in any school.

He said the administration is talking with school staffs to assess the situation, and will also ask parents from Forts Barry and Baker to come in and talk with teachers or administrators about problems.

"All they have to do is call us and set up a time," he said.

Schneider said few of the Army parents had met teachers, and said both parents and staff "must make a special effort" to communicate because the forts are relatively isolated.

Schneider said 59 persons had signed the letter (Albright said 64), and said 24 of the signers do not have children in Sausalito schools.

"We're not holier than thou," Schneider said. "We have problems and we deal with them effectively."

On reports of gang activity, he said some children group together but teachers break them up when they see it.

Asked about pre-school supervision, Schneider said teachers are on duty at all four schools before any school buses arrive in the morning.

One of the complaints was that children from the forts, arriving early by bus, were without supervision.

Yuba City School Bonds Defeated

YUBA CITY (AP)—Voters in the Yuba City Unified School District have rejected $6.25 million in new school bonds.

The vote yesterday was 2,103 for and 2,647 against. The measure needed a two-thirds majority for passage.

In a rural area southeast of Yuba City, voters decided to abolish the newly unified Wheatland-East Nicolaus School District. The vote was 199 in favor of the district and 825 against it.

AIRPORT

David B. Vail and Ostlind opposed it. Commissioner Douglas M. Christiansen was absent.

Ostlind declared that the resolution "might as well have been drawn up by the Novato Chamber of Commerce."

Wright said the purpose wasn't "to knock out" the general aviation - industrial park complex, but "to make it a reality, if possible."

Ostlind contended that the proposed facility could be constructed sooner than "five to 10 years, that feasibility studies would be made, and negotiations have been underway.

"This is all in the preliminary stage, and anything you would do to jeopardize it, would be totally out of line," Ostlind said.

Dickson said the commission's job "is to enhance aviation, and this (the resolution) isn't enhancing aviation."

Coffin said that before the county puts all its efforts in a second airport, the commission should study the county and "come up with priorities."

Nave urged feasibility studies saying, he wasn't sure that a county of 187,000 population could handle such an installation. He asked "Can we pay? Will it pay? Will it be a white elephant-"

Ostlind said that no one ever suggested building the air strip without a study. "Its obvious that you have to have study."

"I never heard anyone suggest that one be made," Wright replied.

Vail said, "Our purpose is to provide all the facilities Marin County needs." He said that Clyde P. Barnett, director of the aeronautics division of the state department of public works and Rep. Don H. Clausen are "enthusiastic about the fact we're trying to utilize Hamilton Air Force Base. I don't feel we're thinking about something hazy in the future, that can't be done. I sincerely believe we can do it.

Legislature Hit By Feuds On Remapping

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Democrats and Republicans skirmished today as delays hit the Legislature's work on reapportioning California congressional district.

The Assembly Elections and Reapportionment Committee heard testimony on two redistricting bills yesterday. When the meeting ended, Chairman Jack Fenton, D-Montebello, said he was forced to postpone a vote on the issue until Monday.

Fenton said Republican fears that Democrats are offering too much protection to Democratic congressmen, and GOP insistence on taking a careful look at the bill, forced him to delay the vote.

The Republicans voiced their fears as the Legislature moved into the third day of its special session on reapportionment.

Not all of California's districts — last reapportioned in 1961 — meet the test.

A Republican, Assemblyman Charles J. Conrad of Sherman Oaks, criticized Fenton's reapportionment measure. He told the committee the plan "obviously is designed to freeze some incumbents in office" implying Fenton was interested in increasing the number of Democratic voters in the districts of a few Democratic congressmen faced with tough GOP opposition.

At present, Democrats control the congressional delegation 21-16, with one vacancy. A special election will be held to fill that vacancy with Shirley Temple Black, the former child actress, one of the Republican candidates.

Conrad asked for support of his own "minimum change" plan, which would leave 19 districts untouched. Fenton's bill would change all but two.

POLITICS

B. Nunn defeated Democrat Henry Ward to give the GOP the Kentucky state house for the first time in 24 years; veteran U.S. Rep. John Bell Williams, a Democrat, won an easy victory over Republican Rubel Phillips in Mississippi.

Legislatures — Democrats retained firm control of the Virginia Legislature with small Republican gains while Democrat William Ferguson Reid of Richmond became the state's first Negro assemblyman elected since 1891; Republicans won control of New Jersey's Legislature; Democrats retained control of the Kentucky Legislature.

In Gary, Ind., Richard G. Hatcher, Negro attorney today was certified as winner of the election for mayor of this 180,000 - population steelmaking city, by 1,389 votes.

Republican Joseph Radigan, the defeated white candidate, went into conference with lawyers and said he would announce a decision later whether to challenge the results.

The Johnson administration could claim comfort, however, from a referendum in San Francisco, where a proposition calling for U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam was defeated by a margin of almost 2 to 1.

In New Jersey, the GOP recaptured both houses of the state legislature. In both New Jersey and Kentucky, the Republican campaigns were directed substantially against Washington and the administration.

Comments early today from national party chairmen followed predictable lines. Democratic Chairman John M. Bailey saw "no particular national trend" in contests, which he said "centered predominantly on local candidates and local issues."

But GOP Chairman Ray C. Bliss said the results showed "that the Republican upsurge which began in 1966 is continuing." He pointed specifically to Kentucky and New Jersey.

Condition Is Fair From Auto Crash

Emile L. Roesling, 67, of 24 Marine Drive, San Rafael was listed in fair condition today in Marin General Hospital with face cuts and chest bruises suffered when his car hit a parked car at Second Street and Grand Avenue, San Rafael last night.

In a chain reaction, the parked car was pushed into two others parked behind it, inflicting minor damage, said police.

$140 Armed Robbery At Hickory Pit

A tall, dark stranger, aged 35-40 and dressed neatly in a green-brown suit and pink shirt pulled a $140 armed robbery at the Hickory Pit Restaurant, 1707 Fourth Street, San Rafael yesterday.

Police said the man called at the rear door of the restaurant at 3:36 p.m., and spoke to waitress Patricia Camporeale, 20, daughter of owner Angelo Camporeale.

The man told her: "Don't be nervous, I'm not going to hurt you. Just give me your bills."

He had his left hand in his pocket and told the girl he had a gun, said police. He handed her a paper bag which she filled with money.

Asked if she had any money in her purse, Miss Camporeale told the robber she had very little. "Forget it," he replied. He told her to sit quietly for five minutes and then left.

The Gallinas Village Community Services District Board will meet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in MacPhail School.

William Desmond, director of environmental health for Marin County, will speak on possibilities for alleviating bad smells which have been bothering people of the area.

Mud flats at low tide, a dairy ranch in the neighborhood and the community's sewer system have been described as possible sources of the odors.

would probably be sent through Cambodia but added that he is "now awaiting a decision" from the National Liberation Front, the Viet Cong's political arm.

"We are always willing to act as intermediaries," he said.

Reliable sources reported that the release of the three Americans was decided as a result of the death Sept. 24 of Gustav C. Hertz, a U.S. AID official kidnaped near Saigon February 1965. Hertz' death of malaria was announced in Washington Tuesday after news of it was relayed to his wife through Cambodia.

Sihanouk said Viet Cong leader Nguyen Huu Tho had informed him "they did their best to keep (Hertz) alive but he was too ill." Tho "apologized for this very sad event," he said.

Sihanouk said he told Mrs. Kennedy Ramsey's family should write to him directly, "then I can intervene with Mr. Tho."

Independent-Journal's telephone queries about the state offer to its comptroller-secretary-treasurer, John Filatreau, who could not be reached.

Vincent said his department could not consider court action to condemn the ranches because the Department of Parks and Recreation had set a ground rule that the land must be acquired only by negotiation.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, told the State Park Commission last year that the ranches will become a highly developed residential area unless acquired by the state. The church group had shown him development plans calling for a density of 2.5 dwelling units an acre, Bagley said.

Philadelphia Mayor Defeats Odds-Makers

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Democratic Mayor James H. J. Tate beat the polls, his own party bosses and a young Republican challenger in a cliffhanger yesterday to win re-election in the nation's fourth largest city.

The contest also served as a preliminary skirmish for Pennsylvania's 1968 presidential electoral votes. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey had said the Keystone state could shift into the GOP column if Philadelphia elected a Republican mayor.

Republican Dist. Atty. Arlen Specter, 37, a former Democrat, brought in the U.S. Senate's only Negro member, Edward Brooke of Massachusetts, in a stab to siphon off some of the city's heavy Negro vote. But it didn't work.

The 57-year-old Tate, though failing to get a majority of the 717,182 votes cast, squeaked past Specter and three minority party candidates, two of them Negroes.

Rafferty Answers Critics Over Retention Of Deputy

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State school chief Max Rafferty branded as a "downright flat out and out lie" charges by the California Taxpayers Association that he re-created a staff position abolished by the legislature.

The taxpayers association had said yesterday that the legislature this year abolished the position of deputy superintendent of public instruction but that Rafferty restored the job using department funds to keep "the same man doing the same work."

Rafferty responded that the position "was never deleted by the legislature."

"If they want to delete it, they must pass a law," Rafferty said. "The money (for the post) was left out of the budget and we simply financed it with department funds."

The post is held by Everett Calvert. Some legislators had hoped to remove him from the department by deleting funds for his salary. Rafferty and other legislators, however, have defended Calvert.

The taxpayers' group also charged the State Teachers' Retirement Board with creating a staff position in order to retain Leo J. Reynolds, whose position as executive officer was abolished by legislation.

Board Chairman Julius Hammer said the new position was created because the board felt "that this man possessed many skills and talents . . . and that his skills and knowledge should be retained."

Hammer said the State Personnel Board and State Finance Director Gordon P. Smith approved the new post and that the board did not feel it was bypassing the legislature.

Ward Is Seeking Attorney Change In Slaying Case

OAKLAND (UPI) — Max Ward, of Sacramento, charged with the 1966 shotgun slaying of Painters Union official Lloyd Green, wants to change attorneys.

He advised Alameda County Superior Judge Redmond Staats yesterday he wanted Oakland attorney Herman W. Mintz replaced by attorney Benjamin F. Marlowe of Oakland. Staats had appointed Mintz earlier to defend Ward, 38, a painting contractor.

Through Mintz, Ward advised Staats the U.S. District Court of Appeals in San Francisco would be asked to compel the superior court to appoint Marlowe.

The state accuses Ward of shooting to death Green, financial secretary of the Hayward Painters Union local. Ward is serving a life sentence for the slaying of Dow Wilson, financial secretary of the union's local in San Francisco.

Originally, the word restaurant was used to describe a nourishing, or "restorative," soup.

Republican Elected Kentucky's Governor

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Louie B. Nunn, a country lawyer, has been elected the first Republican governor of Kentucky in 24 years but Democrats have kept control of the legislature and lieutenant governorship.

The mild upset yesterday did not provide a firm clue on whether Nunn's denunciation of President Johnson's policies was a major contributing factor.

Nunn said, "Perhaps it's a victory for the people of America because I'm sure they're taking note tonight at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue."

Nunn defeated Democrat Henry Ward, a former highway commissioner supported by the state regime, by about 21,000 votes in a moderate turnout.

LOUIE B. NUNN
First in 24 years

With 2,927 of 3,031 precincts reporting, Nunn had 429,931 and Ward 408,403.

The victory was a comeback from a previous defeat in 1963 when Nunn lost to Gov. Edward T. Breathitt by only 13,000 votes.

NEGRO VICTOR—Cleveland, Ohio Democrat Carl Stokes and his wife Shirley are greeted by well-wishers after Stokes' narrow victory in the mayoralty race. (AP Wirephoto)

Negro Sets Precedent In Cleveland Contest

CLEVELAND (AP) — Carl B. Stokes, a product of the slums, became the first Negro yesterday to be elected mayor of one of America's 10 largest cities.

Stokes, in all his battles up the social, economic and political ladders, never had to fight harder than he did to beat Republican Seth C. Taft for Cleveland's mayoral office.

His razor-thin edge of 2,501 votes—129,829 to 127,328—was in doubt almost to the end.

Taft, a grandson of a president and nephew of the late U.S. Sen. Robert A. Taft, grabbed a sizeable lead early and held it until Negro East Side votes began to come in.

Stokes lost no time after his victory to call for a united Cleveland.

Taft promptly asked his supporters to "forget words spoken in heat and to think now of things that can be done to make our a great city."

Taft said he would wait until he saw the official tally before deciding whether to call for a recount.

Stokes, 40 and a natty dresser with an easy humor, bucked his own Democratic party organization to defeat incumbent Mayor Ralph S. Locher in the Oct. 3 primary by 18,000 votes. This time he had the backing of his party, organized labor and Cleveland's two daily newspapers, the Plain Dealer and the Cleveland Press.

He and Taft sought to avoid the racial issue but it could not be ignored and one of the heaviest votes in Cleveland's history—257,153—turned out despite a day that began with subfreezing temperatures and driving snow.

Taft, running for his first political office, surprised even his opponent by the way he took to campaigning. He is a Republican in a city where all but 34,000 of its 326,000 registered voters are Democrats.

Taft made it clear he was just as liberal as Stokes. He took a stand against the Taft-Hartley Act and said he would use the mayor's authority to push equal employment opportunities for Negroes.

It was Macon's first two-party race for mayor.

Voters Repeal Fair Housing Ordinance

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (UPI)—Voters repealed the city's fair housing ordinance yesterday and Negro Mayor Robert C. Henry said the action "emasculated" the governing commission's power to enact similar ordinances in the future.

A Negro Physician Winner In Virginia

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—Dr. W. Ferguson Reid, a Negro physician, became the first member of his race to win election to the Virginia General Assembly in this century yesterday.

Reid, a Democrat, apparently polled the fourth highest vote in the state's general election.

Kennedy Wins Davis Straw Poll

DAVIS (UPI)—Students at the University of California at Davis have overwhelmingly supported Robert F. Kennedy as their favorite for president in a mock election held yesterday.

Kennedy drew 453 votes to 323 for Republican Nelson Rockefeller. Richard M. Nixon pulled 158 and President Johnson 91.

Students were offered five different Vietnam plans and none of them drew overwhelming support. A total of 467 supported a plan calling for the U.S. to make a generous peace offer and then escalate their attack should it be rejected. A call for an unconditional pull-out drew 447 votes and 368 backed a plan to de-escalate and negotiate.

Copter Crashes, Killing Pilot

LIVERMORE (AP) — An experimental four-place helicopter crashed on a test flight yesterday, killing the pilot as he neared the Livermore Airport.

Police said the victim, August Vincenzi of Atwater, was returning to the airport when the strange-looking craft plunged to earth within the city limits about 150 feet from Interstate 80 near Collier Canyon Road.

The helicopter was developed and being tested by Filper Research division of Filper Corp. of San Ramon.

The helicopter was destroyed, but there was no fire.

Federal aviation officials were investigating.

William Orr, Filper Research vice president and general manager said the aircraft had a tandem rotor system, and with a 285 horsepower Continental engine had a 400 mile cruising range and a potential top speed of more than 150 miles an hour.

The company said last August it anticipated an FAA airworthiness certification early next year.

New York Voters Reject Constitution By 2-1 Vote

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI)—New York voters split their tickets yesterday and approved a $2.5 billion transportation bond issue, but defeated overwhelmingly a proposed new constitution snarled by religious controversy.

Public outcry against one portion of the new constitution, repeal of the Blaine amendment prohibiting state aid to parochial and nonpublic schools, was blamed for massive voter rejection of the new charter. The proposed document was hammered out by a Democratic controlled constitution convention over a six month period, at a cost to the state's taxpayers of $10 million.

In a record off-year turnout, New Yorkers thumped the constitution better than 2-1, and approved the bond issue by about 3-2. The bonding includes $1.2 billion for improving state highways, $1 billion for streamlining New York City's public transportation. And $250 million for airport improvements.

The only course left to changing the constitution is through regular amendment by the legislature.

LOUISE HICKS

Big Boston Negro Ballot For White

BOSTON (AP) — Strong support from Negro voters helped Kevin H. White to a 12,000-vote victory yesterday in his race against Louise Day Hicks for mayor of Boston.

While the race issue often went unspoken by either candidate during the campaign, Mrs. Hicks was known to be a vigorous opponent of busing to achieve racial balance in the city's schools.

"You know where I stand," she told the voters repeatedly.

Unofficial returns from the city's 275 precincts gave White 102,551 votes to 90,122 for Mrs. Hicks.

A preliminary examination of voting patterns showed the white vote to be split about even and the Negro vote to be solidly behind White, the Massachusetts secretary of state.

In the city's three predominantly Negro wards—9, 12 and 14—White outpolled Mrs. Hicks 15,352 to 3,214. He also ran well in other Negro areas. Unofficial estimates place the total of Negroes among the city's 286,000 registered voters at 30,000.

White said, "No man or woman is going to tear this city apart with hate or bigotry or false promises."

Although racial issues were a key factor, observers estimated that Mrs. Hicks' position was weakened in the closing days of the campaign by her promise of $10,000 salaries for policemen and firemen without a tax increase.

White said her claim that federal funds would finance the 33 per cent increase amounted to "fiscal fantasy."

Both candidates in the nonpartisan election were Democrats.

Sacramento Elects First Negro To City Council

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Sacramento has elected its first Negro city councilman and may get a new mayor.

Milton L. McGhee, a Negro attorney and former head of the local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, ran seventh in a slate of nine persons elected yesterday.

He and two other Negroes were among 30 candidates — including five incumbents who were reelected.

Incumbent Richard H. Marriott received the highest number of votes. City Council policy has been to select as mayor the candidate polling the highest number of votes.

If this procedure is followed again, Marriott will succeed Walter E. Christensen, who ran second.

McGhee resigned as head of the local NAACP when he entered the council race. He had explained it is NAACP policy not to have leaders who are active in politics.

He was active last summer in bringing leaders of Sacramento's Negro community together with city officials after a minor racial disturbance.

General Plan Hearing Set In Sausalito

The Sausalito City Council will hold a public hearing on the revised general plan at 8 p.m. today in the council chamber.

The plan excludes the central waterfront planning area, which is under study by the planning commission.

Madrigal Group Plans Concerts

The madrigal group of the College of Marin will present concerts in the college's new fine arts building at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

The program will be in the choral rehearsal hall, Room 72, which seats 125 persons. The 13 student singers who make up the group will include in the program works by Vivaldi and Pergolesi, and director S. Drummond Wolff will perform two solo organ works.

Gary Loser Claims Fraud Helped Negro Win; Troops Not Needed

GARY, Ind. (AP) — Negro Democrat Richard G. Hatcher's 1,495-vote victory in the race for mayor of Gary was assailed today by the loser as fraudulent.

Republican Joseph Radigan charged that in two precincts "more voters voted than were on the rolls."

Refusing to concede victory to the 34-year-old bachelor lawyer who ran without the help of the local Democratic organization, Radigan told his supporters, "We feel there is need for further investigation before it can be decided who won this election." No formal demand for a recount had yet been made.

RECORD TURNOUT

Complete but unofficial returns showed that a record turnout had given Hatcher 39,904 votes to 38,409 for Radigan.

Hatcher told 600 jubilant supporters at his headquarters, "We're convinced that we have won this election. Despite fears and rumors, our city is still intact."

Campaign tensions in the steel-making city of 180,000, of whom some 100,000 are Negroes, had prompted Gov. Roger D. Branigin to order National Guard and state police units to standby duty on the fringes of the city.

QUIET DAY

But the election went off without incident and Mayor A. Martin Katz, whom Hatcher defeated in the Democratic primary, said it was "the quietest election in the history of Gary."

In his victory speech, Hatcher urged that the peaceful tone continue.

"Any incident in the city tonight will spoil that victory. I am confident that all the people will honor this request."

The more than 78,000 votes cast exceeded the previous record of 72,847 in the 1964 presidential election.

Hatcher was denied support by John Krupa, Lake County Democratic chairman, who accused the nominee of refusing to denounce Black Power and militant Negro leaders.

Former Mayor's Son Winner In Baltimore

BALTIMORE (UPI) — City Council President Thomas D'Alesandro III, whose father was mayor from 1947 to 1955, was elected mayor yesterday in a landslide.

D'Alesandro, a Democrat, had 138,938 votes to 28,525 for Republican opponent Arthur Sherwood.

McCarthy To Test Chance Of Running Against LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., takes soundings in four key states this weekend to plumb the depth of Democratic party opposition to President Johnson's Vietnam policies.

McCarthy has scheduled speeches in St. Paul, Minn., tomorrow, Ann Arbor, Mich., on Friday, Boston on Saturday and Chicago on Sunday.

His findings on the weekend tour may help him decide whether to oppose the President in some 1968 presidential primaries.

The Minnesota senator, whose name was one Johnson mentioned in 1964 to conceal for a time his choice of Hubert H. Humphrey as his vice presidential runningmate, denied in an interview yesterday that he and the President have reached a political parting of the ways.

"You don't reach a point of no return in politics," McCarthy said.

"The question here is not one of personalities but of issues. It is better to have the party openly divided on such issues as Vietnam than to try to cover up the division by a false front of unity."

He said Johnson's attacks on his Democratic war critics have not contributed to party discussion of the issues.

"The President has had experience in handling cattle," he said.

"You start them slowly and then stampeded them. He doesn't understand that that same psychology can't be applied to people."

Capt. Robert Gray, a New Englander, in 1792 sailed the first ship to carry the new American flag around the world.

ALIOTO IS VICTOR IN SAN FRANCISCO

Three Incumbent Supervisors Re-Elected, But Voters Oust Three Other Incumbents

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Joseph Alioto, Democratic attorney, was elected San Francisco's mayor yesterday in a non-partisan race with a field of 18 candidates.

Alioto defeated Harold Dobbs, Republican businessman, by a comfortable margin, with Jack Morrison, former newspaperman and liberal Democratic member of the board of supervisors, running third.

Alioto will succeed John F. Shelley, a fellow Democrat who defeated Dobbs four years ago. Shelley decided against seeking re-election because of ill health.

The vote count from all 1,341 precincts gave Alioto 106,814; Dobbs 90,482; and Morrision 40,246.

BACKED BY SHELLEY

Alioto was endorsed by Shelley as his successor. Alioto was a backer of the late State Sen. Eugene McAteer, Democratic party leader who died of a heart attack soon after announcing he would seek the San Francisco mayor's office.

Alioto thus won heavy Democratic support among San Francisco's electorate with a 2-1 edge in Democratic registration.

In the supervisorial race, San Francisco voters ousted three incumbents while retaining three others.

With all votes counted, the six supervisors elected were: John A. Ertola, incumbent, 107,365; Leo T. McCarthy, incumbent, 102,602; Robert H. Hendelsohn, 95,170; Ronald Pelosi, 92,453; Terry A. Francois, incumbent, 91,357; and James Mailliard, 77,914.

RECOUNT DUE

Of the losing incumbents, Kevin O'Shea came closest with 77,696. The registrar of voters office said there would be a recount of Maillard and O'Shea votes.

Other losing incumbents were Joe Beeman, 47,440 votes, and Joseph Casey, 28,644.

Proposition A, a $98 million bond issue for improvement of San Francisco International Airport, passed with 150,840 yes votes to 71,598.

Proposition N, which would have allowed a business license tax, failed with 89,676 no votes to 71,539 yes.

Proposition O, setting a limit on property taxes, $6.15 per $100 assessed valuation, passed with 77,429 yes votes to 73,998.

Dist. Atty. John Jay Ferdon won re-election, defeating John H. McFeeley Jr., 128,986 to 27,886.

Peace Issue Gets Drubbing On City Ballot

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco voters soundly rejected yesterday a peace proposition calling for an immediate cease-fire and U.S. withdrawal in the Vietnam war.

The final count from all 1,341 precincts gave 132,406 votes against cease-fire and U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam and 76,632 in favor.

Joseph Alioto, Democratic attorney elected as mayor in the nonpartisan municipal election, declared, however, he did not see the peace proposition result as a victory for Vietnam war hawks.

"Proposition P was defeated because it called for unconditional surrender for the United States," Alioto said.

The peace initiative, placed on the ballot only after successful appeal to the State Supreme Court, put this question to San Francisco voters:

"Shall it be the policy of the city and county of San Francisco that there be an immediate cease-fire and withdrawal of U.S. troops from Vietnam so that the Vietnamese people can settle their own problems?"

Alioto said he believed the peace proposition result should encourage those supporting a negotiated settlement of the Vietnam conflict.

"I personally feel there should be a negotiated peace, followed by an American withdrawal, and then a return to Vietnam with a massive American aid program," he said.

Flag Will Fly Until War Ends

PLAINVIEW, Tex. (AP) — An American flag will be raised here Saturday to be taken down only at the end of the Vietnam war.

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 5399 of Plainview have voted to raise the flag at daybreak on Veterans Day, and to leave it flying, outlined at night with a spotlight, as long as the Vietnam war continues.

The move was projected to counter war protesters, and the VFW unit declared 100 per cent approval of the present war policy, post officials said.

Early Yule Seals Available At Office

Christmas Seals are now available from the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Association at 206 Bon Air Center, Greenbrae.

The seals will not reach Marin homes by mail until later in the month. For those mailing gifts early, such as to overseas destinations, the seals may be obtained directly from the local center.

Peace Force Is Not Upset

The chairman of a committee seeking a countywide vote in Marin on the Vietnam War said today that the defeat yesterday of a similar proposition in San Francisco "won't discourage us."

Mrs. Monte G. Steadman of Corte Madera, chairman of the Vietnam Initiative Committee, said the proposed Marin proposition "is considerably more reasonable" than San Francisco's Prposition P.

The badly defeated proposition called for "immediate ceasefire and withdrawal" from Vietnam, "and that wording disturbed a lot of people," said Mrs. Steadman. The proposed Marin proposition calls for "immediate ceasefire and negotiations."

The difference between the two propositions means "ours will have a much better chance," she predicted.

The committee has collected more than 2,000 of the 7,000 signatures needed on petitions to put the proposition on the Marin ballot next June, she said. Petitions must be submitted to the county clerk by Feb. 1.

First Woman Named Mayor Of Hartford

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — Ann Uccello, a Republican, became the first woman mayor in Hartford's history yesterday, squeezing out a 165-vote victory over Democratic incumbent George B. Kinsella.

She won the race in a city where registered Democrats outnumber Republicans 4-to-1.

JOHN BELL WILLIAMS
Revenges a purge

The penalty for espionage in time of war is death.

Williams Is Elected Mississippi Governor

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Rep. John Bell Williams, a Democrat who fought his party in Congress for 20 years, today celebrated a landslide victory for the governor's office over spirited Republican opposition by issuing a call for peace and harmony.

The 48-year-old attorney, purged of his seniority in Congress for backing Republican Barry Goldwater for president in 1964, smothered GOP candidate Rubel Phillips in yesterday's general election turnout.

With 1,785 of the state's 2,150 precincts reporting, Williams had 263,613 votes to 113,375 for Phillips.

Voters in predominantly Negro Holmes County apparently named the first Negro to the legislature since the Reconstruction era. Robert Clark, an independent running with the backing of the Negro-dominated Mississippi Freedom Democratic party, defeated Rep. J.P. Love, 65, on the basis of unofficial returns. Love has served in the House since 1956.

The number of Negro office holders in the state rose to 24 with the election of six others, two each winning posts as county supervisors, constables and justices of the peace.

Ethel Glen (Hop) Barnett, who received a mistrial last month in the trial of 18 men charged with conspiracy in the deaths of three civil rights workers at Philadelphia, Miss., in 1964, was elected sheriff of Neshoba County.

Proposed rerouting of Shoreline Highway, Highway 1, will be discussed from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow on the KTIM "Sounding Board" program.

The proposal will be considered by three members of the Marin County Planning Commission, Dr. William F. Upton, Neils Schultz Jr. and Hugh Dougherty, and by Albert Solnit, chief of advance planning for the county planning department.

Listeners may telephone questions to be asked of the panelists. The program, moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be rebroadcast at 9 p.m. tomorrow on KTIM-FM.

Schools Entered And Ransacked

Thieves and vandals broke into two high schools early Monday, breaking windows and ransacking drawers, San Rafael police reported today.

The canteen of San Rafael High School was entered by someone breaking outside windows. Cash drawers were opened but no money found. Nothing was reported missing.

Entry was forced in to Davison Junior High School and 13 attempts made to pry open a soft drink vending machine before an undetermined amount of money taken.

NAPALM FOE EJECTED

Two Firms Apply To Run Airport

The Marin County Aviation Commission, with two offers in hand, last night set Nov. 28 as the deadline for accepting proposals from prospective base operators at the Marin County Airport at Novato. (Another story, page 1.)

Chairman Joseph W. Wright reported that Marin Aviation Inc. and Navair Inc. have submitted proposals, and two other firms — Coddington Flying Service of Santa Rosa and Pacific Aero Sales of San Jose — have expressed interest.

John Hubbard, representing Navair, said his firm would construct a 12,000 square foot facility including hangars, office and classroom space.

Marin Aviation porposed reaching the required building size by stages, but also proposed to handle the gasoline sales, with a cut going to the county.

Operators would put up buildings and provide facilities such as flying schools and charter services.

Commissioner Melville Dickson said he felt it was unfair to discuss the two proposals submitted since others had not been submitted yet, and a prospective competitor was in the audience.

Commissioner Benjamin R. Ostlind said the commission wasn't considering offers in the "nature of sealed bids," but listening to proposals and evaluating them.

Commissioners voted to request supervisors for funds for the fill and compacting necessary to prepare a site for base operators.

Donald R. Frost, county public works directors, estimated that the fill and compacting project would cost about $36,000.

Commissioners are expected to make their decision on operators at their next meeting at 8 p.m. Dec. 12 at the Civic Center.

The commissin also recommended applying for Federal Aviation Agency funds for development at the airport for the next three years, including land purchase, full standard lighting for runways and taxiway, parking area, grading and runway extension.

The projects, estimated to cost more than $200,000, would receive 53.6 per cent FAA funds for some projects.

Dixie Board To Study Benefits

Dixie School District Board of Trustees will consider a resolution that would permit volunteer employees to receive workmen's compensation benefits, at tonight's meeting.

The trustees will meet at 8 p.m. at 35 Trellis Drive, San Rafael.

The 1967 legislature amended the laws so that a volunteer may be deemed an employee of the district and entitled to benefits for injuries suffered while performing services under the direction of the school governing board.

Supt. Dennie B. Willis reported that the certificated salary policy statement will be on the agenda for the second time, and ready for adoption. The trustees will also review the 1967-68 budget and the effects of AB-272, the school aid bill which provided added revenue to school districts.

Newspaper In Spanish Produced At Redwood

Two Redwood High School students, the only ones in a special fifth year Spanish class, are editors of a Spanish-language newspaper at the school.

Editors Carol Norberg and Cheryl Richtman, both of Tiburon, put out the two-page paper containing features, articles, a short story and two columns, all in Spanish.

Pupils' Dance Set

The U. S. Male will play at a dance for seventh and eighth graders from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Friday at the Mill Valley Community and Youth Center. The dance is sponsored by the city parks and recreation department.

Washington Paper Claims Nofziger Told Of Firings

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Evening Star says its political reporter heard California Gov. Ronald Reagan's communications director relate that two Reagan aides were fired for homosexual activity.

Republican Reagan has denied the entire incident, first reported by columnist Drew Pearson. His communications director, Lyn Nofziger, joined in the governor's denial.

The Star said in an editorial yesterday "The fact is that Nofziger, during the governor's cruise aboard the S.S. Independence, did tell a handful of newsmen—The Star's political writer Paul Hope among them—that two of Reagan's staff members had been fired for homosexual activity."

Reagan and Nofziger were aboard the Independence for the National Governors Conference last month.

Airport Job On Schedule, Board Told

The Marin County Airport at Novato is 75 per cent complete and should be ready for dedication next January, Public Works Director Donald R. Frost reported to the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday.

At the suggestion of Supervisor William A. Gnoss, the supervisors decided to delay the formal dedication ceremonies until better weather next spring.

Gnoss said he would like to see some plans made for an air show to celebrate the opening. "I'd like to see some antique planes myself," said Supervisor Peter H. Behr.

The supervisors authorized a progress payment of $62,216 to Brown-Ely Co. for work done on the airport.

Assistant Administrator John F. Barrows reported that the Marin Aviation Commission has under study several firm offers from fixed base operators who are willing to provide facilities like flying schools and charter services.

GETS DIRT OUT! KEEPS DIRT OUT!

Amazing TV Demonstration Proves Rugs & Carpets Stay Cleaner!

A combination of dust and dirt was poured on a clean white rug. Half the area had been treated with Duo-Dellay Process and half untreated.

This dirt was ground in just as foot traffic grinds similar dirt into your carpets.

CAUTION: Do not be misled by claims of new methods which do not meet manufacturers' specifications. Some unapproved processes may cause rapid resoiling.

The area was vacuumed. Look how the soil was easily vacuumed off the area treated by the Duo-Dellay Process. Yet this same soil penetrated and stayed imbedded in the untreated side.

Duo-Dellay is a harmless invisable process developed by Duo-Dellay Prod. Co. with duPont Chemicals that shields all types of carpets or upholstery against dirt. It keeps dirt from becoming imbedded in the fibers. This dirt lays on the surface and can be vacuumed away. This process will last up to a year depending on the use your rug receives. York Research Corp. tested rugs treated with duo-Dellay and reported an average increase in the life of the rugs of 40%!

Lower Grades Family Life Study Explored

The Fairfax School District board is wondering how much of a Family Life Education program it should have for grades down to kinderarten.

"It wouldn't be only sex, but would get into a lot of other questions," Supt. H. Reginald Hammond said today.

The only thing the district has now is some films about how girls grow up that are shown to the upper grades, and the board members discussed but made no decision on the possibility of something broader at their meeting last night, Hammond reported.

"It would be something that would get into a lot of areas other than sex — roles of mothers and fathers, things like that," said Hammond. "But sex would be a part of it, too."

In the first grade, he said, "sex is generally approached through the use of animals and plants." But the teaching of sex, using real people, may begin as early as the second grade. "There are some very nice things about mothers and babies that may be used with very young children," said Hammond.

The Fairfax School District Board Also:

WHITE HILL — Hammond reported that the new Whitehill School is slightly behind schedule, but should be completed before Christmas and ready for occupancy by seventh and eighth graders after the holidays.

GARAGE — The board approved $400 in repairs to a garage on district-owned property at 62 Park Road.

FENCE — Authorized installation of fencing up to $800 at White Hill and Manor schools. A better fire alarm and repair of the heating in the office at Manor School also is necessary, Hammond told board members.

System Bids

Corte Madera Sanitary District last night decided to call for bids on Dec. 5 for a Catholic protection system for a 20-inch force main. The system will protect against electrolysis.

San Diego Returns Curran As Mayor

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Incumbent Frank Curran won by a more than 2-1 margin yesterday in his bid for re-election as mayor of San Diego.

Curran scored 96,593 votes while his opponent, city councilman Allen Hitch, gathered 47,230 in final semi-official returns.

Calm, Realistic Approach Urged To Teen Drug Users

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The man in charge of handling youthful lawbreakers in California urges a calm and realistic approach to juvenile narcotics problems, not a give-in to emotion or myths.

The advice came yesterday from Heman G. Stark, retiring as head of the Youth Authority. He issued a report on drugs done for his agency by the Institute for the Study of Crime and Delinquency.

Stark said the study "underscores the importance of treating young people who take to drugs at as early an age as possible."

The study urged directing the fight against youthful drug use "toward realistically defined problems, rather than in simple response to popular mythology, ill - conceived conjecture and emotion-whipped hysteria."

Based on a study of 886 persons under 18 arrested in Los Angeles in 1960 and 1961 for using non-opiate drugs, the study showed that "a majority of young people arrested for non-opiate drug offenses were never arrested again for subsequent narcotic violations."

This clashes with declarations from police and some in the medical field that use of such non-opiate drugs as marijuana normally leads to such narcotics as heroin.

The study noted that the "use of marijuana has become more open and it is being publicly defended on an ever increasing scale."

California's constitution is one of the longest in the world.

Hard Date Set On Dismantling Of Dual Schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has decided that all Southern school districts will have to totally dismantle dual school systems for whites and Negroes by the fall of 1969.

It is the first time officials of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare have set a hard date by which they expect complete compliance with the 1964 Cvil Rights Act.

The act prohibits federal support of any programs in which racial discrimination is practiced.

Spokesmen for HEW's Office for Civil Rights said in response to a reporter's inquiry that the decision has evolved over the past few months.

The decision apparently gained impetus from a recent report by the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights criticizing HEW for achieveing more desegregation sooner.

Long Is Facing New Senate Probe Into Income Sources

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo., cleared by the Senate Ethics Committee only two weeks ago, today faced a new investigation, posing another obstacle to his re-election campaign.

Chairman John C. Stennis, D-Miss., announced yesterday that the Ethics Committee had reopened the case and would "fully consider" new allegations about Long's connections and the sources of his income.

The committee's decision, prompted by charges in Life Magazine, came as Long faced an already stiff primary battle with Lt. Gov. Thomas Eagleton.

Life charged that the committee investigation was a "whitewash" and added that Long either lied to the committee or is "a highly paid legal adviser not only to the Teamsters but to operators doing business with the mob."

Long issued a statement calling the Life Magazine allegations "a vicious and malicious smear campaign against me based only on innuendos and insinuations."

In a Senate statement, Stennis said the committee would consider the latest allegations "within the framework of Sen. Long's conduct as a member of the Senate."

The statement gave no indication of how intensive an investigation the committee would undertake, nor how long it would take.

Life's original story about Long last May 26 charged that the senator's lengthy investigation of government wiretapping was designed to free Teamsters President James R. Hoffa from a jail sentence on jury-tampering charges. The article alleged that Long accepted $48,000 from St. Louis attorney Morris Shenker, one of Hoffa's lawyers.

FILET OF SOLE FLORENTINE features a melted cheese topping over rolled filets on a bed of leafy green spinach.

Sole Filets, Spinach Make Quick Entree

For an exciting taste treat, try this recipe for Filet of Sole Florentine. It is simple to make, takes approximately 45 minutes from start to serving, and can be prepared and served in the same container.

- 2 one lb. packages frozen sole filets (defrosted)
- 2 packages (9 oz. each) frozen spinach
- 1 cup dry white wine (optional)
- water
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1½ tablespoons flour
- 1 cup grated Swiss cheese
- 1 cup heavy cream

Cook spinach according to package directions. Drain well. Melt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine in saucepan; saute spinach over low heat 5 minutes. Place spinach in center of heatproof serving dish. Keep warm.

Grease a 12-inch skillet with 2 tablespoons butter or margarine. Fold filets in half or thirds; place in pan. Add wine or water to just cover filets. Add salt. Cover and simmer 2 or 3 minutes. Remove filets, arrange around spinach on serving dish. Keep warm.

Blend flour and one tablespoon butter or margarine. Reduce liquid in skillet by half. Add mixture, a small amount at a time, stirring until sauce is smooth. Reserve three tablespoons cheese. Add cream and remaining cheese to sauce. Stir until cheese is melted. Remove from heat; add four tablespoons butter or margarine, a little piece at a time, rotating skillet to effect a gradual melting. Pour sauce over filets and spinach. Glaze quickly under the broiler or in a 425 degree oven. Makes six servings.

TASTY PARTY FOOD—Pineapple-Shaped Potpourri of Cheese—Chicken Liver Pate—Snack A'Plenty. A sure star attraction at an open house is a potpourri of cheeses shaped into a pineapple. Plan for the holidays ahead now.

Cheese Pleasers For The Holidays Ahead

Celebrate by the clock — mark the passing of the old year at the stroke of midnight, or invite friends and family to just "drop-in" for an open house on New Year's Day.

Either time, plan a quick change of decor from Christmas . . . maybe a mixing and matching of the traditional red and green with silver and gold.

The resolve to intrigue with food and keep it immediately by presenting a potpourri of cheeses shaped into a pineapple. Combine sharp Cheddar, natural Wisconsin Swiss, Napoleon Brand Roquefort, and cream cheese, mold into a pineapple, then score with diamonds sticking each with a clove or olive slice. Simulate the spiny leaves with celery stalks and pickles.

CHEESE PINEAPPLE

(Makes about 25 servings)

- 6 cups shredded (three 8-oz. packages) Sharp Natural Cheddar Cheese Bar
- 1½ cups shredded (one 6-oz. package) Wisconsin Swiss Cheese
- 3 (1¼ oz.) packages Napoleon Brand Roquefort Cheese, crumbled
- 1 (8-oz.) package Cream Cheese or Neufchatel cheese
- ½ cup (¼-lb.) Danish Flavor Margarine
- ½ cup apple juice
- 2 tablespoons Reconstituted Lemon Juice
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- Whole cloves
- Stuffed olives
- Celery sticks and leaves
- 1 (10-fl. oz.) jar Candied Midget Gherkins

In a large electric mixer bowl, let cheeses and margarine soften at room temperature. Beat at low speed on electric mixer until well blended. Add apple juice, lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce. Beat about 5 minutes or until blended. Spoon cheese mixture into two 1-quart squat, round ice cream containers. Chill in refrigerator several hours or overnight. Carefully remove cheese mixture from containers. Place one on top of the other, with large, round surfaces together. With hands, shape cheese mixture into a "pineapple" shape. Place on serving plate. Smooth surface with knife or spatula. With the handle of a spoon, score surface of "pineapple" into diamond shapes. Alternate rows of whole cloves and slices of stuffed olives on scored surface. Make "pineapple" top with celery sticks, leaves and whole drained pickles. Chill about 2 hours before serving.

(Makes 4 cups or 8-inch round pate')

ASPIC LAYER:

- 1½ teaspoons (½ envelope) unflavored gelatine
- ¼ cup of cold water
- 1 teaspoon Instant Chicken Bouillon
- ½ cup boiling water
- 1 teaspoon brandy
- 1 teaspoon Reconstituted Lemon Juice Pimentos and green pepper for decoration
- 1 cup (two 4-0z. cans) Brandywine Stems and Pieces Mushrooms

Sprinkle the ½ envelope gelatine over cold water to soften. Dissolve the bouillon in boiling water; add to softened gelatine and stir until thoroughly dissolved. Add brandy and lemon juice. Place over ice water; stir until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Pour in about one-half of the gelatine mixture, or enough to just cover the bottom of a greased 8-inch round baking pan. Chill in refrigerator a few minutes or just until firm. Keep remaining gelatine mixture at room temperature. With a small cutter, cut flower-shaped pieces of pimento, very small leaf-shaped pieces of green pepper and a few mushroom slices. (Reserve mushroom liquid.) Arrange in a decorative design on top of firm aspic layer. Carefully pour remaining gelatine over design. Chill in refrigerator a few minutes or until firm.

PATE LAYER:

- 1 tablespoon (1 envelope) unflavored gelatine
- 1 (10½ oz.) can Chicken Livers and Brandywine Mushrooms in Gravy
- ¼ cup Dehydrated Parsley Flakes
- 3 tablespoons chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons brandy
- 1 tablespoon Reconstituted Lemon Juice
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon celery salt

Pour reserved mushroom liquid into top of a double boiler. Sprinkle gelatine over the surface of mushroom liquid. Place over boiling water; stir until gelatine is thoroughly dissolved. In a electric blender container, combine drained mushrooms and remaining ingredients. Add dissolved gelatine. Cover and blend at high speed until ingredients are well blended and very smooth. Carefully pour pate' over firm decorated aspic layer. Chill in refrigerator about 4 hours. Unmold onto serving plate. If desired, garnish with additional mushroom slices.

Bake Rolled Sugar Cookies To Serve During Holidays

If you would enjoy offering your family and friends the most delicious Christmas sugar cookies — thin, crisp and of delicate flavor — then we suggest you try this recipe. You can bake them weeks before the holiday and store them in the freezer.

Of course these coolies take time to make — all wafer-thin rolled sugar cookies do. But if you avail yourself of a modern "set" — a pastry cloth and rolling-pin cover — you'll find that after a little practice, you can manage rich cookie dough with ease. This is simple equipment, but once you use it, we'll wager that you'll never want to be without it. One of the best of these pastry sets come with metal rods and wooden bars to hold the cloth firmly over the working space.

Be sure to rub flour into the pastry cloth and rolling pin cover before using them. Then each time you roll out a small batch of dough, slide it to one side to make sure it isn't sticking, if it sticks at all, you need to rub more flour into the cloth. Before you roll out a new batch of dough, you may also need to rub a little more flour into the cloth. Keep an eye, too, on the rolling-pin cover and rub flour into it as needed.

We suggest that you tint the cookie dough a pale green with food coloring and use a cookie cutter that is a Christmas-tree shape. But of course you may want to vary the color and shape. You might like to tint the dough a pale yellow-gold and use a star-shape cutter, or tint it pink and use a heart cutter. To fully savor the crisp texture and butter flavor, we advise against frosting these delightful cookies.

CHRISTMAS TREE COOKIES

- 2½ cups sifted regular flour
- ½ teaspoon baking soda
- ½ teaspoon cream of tartar
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup (½ pound or 2 sticks) butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1½ teaspoons vanilla
- ⅛ teaspoon green food coloring

On waxpaper sift together the flour, baking soda, cream of tartar and salt.

In a medium mixing bowl, cream the butter and sugar; thoroughly beat in egg and vanilla. Stir in food coloring, then sifted dry ingredients. Store, tightly covered, in refrigerator for at least 8 hours — longer if desired. Cookie dough is easiest to handle if it is made up about 3 days in advance of rolling out.

Divide chilled dough into 10 balls, each about the size of a small lemon or a little larger than a golf ball. Keep balls of dough, covered, in refrigerator while rolling out one ball at a time.

Roll out dough on a prepared (flour rubbed in) pastry cloth until it is very thin — about 1/16 inch thick. Cut dough with Christmas-tree cookie cutter and place fairly close together on lightly greased cookie sheets. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven for 6 to 8 minutes or until very lightly browned around edges. With a wide spatula, remove to wire racks to cool. Store in tightly covered containers for short-term storage. For longer storage freeze as follows:

Place cooled cookies in flat pans or on cookie sheets. When frozen, stack in boxes with freezerproof paper between layers. Overwrap boxes with freezer paper. At serving time, remove cookies from freezer and wrapping. Place on cookie sheets in a preheated moderate (350 degrees) bake for exactly 1 minute; when cookies cool, they will be crisp.

Recipe makes 10½ to 11 dozen cookies. (AP)

Make Cranberry Casserole With Leftover Ham, Turkey

NEW YORK (UPI)—Make holiday cranberry casserole with leftover turkey, ham, chicken or pork.

Mix well together 4 cups each of mashed cooked sweet potatoes and cooked ham, turkey, chicken or pork, 1 (8¾ ounce) can of pineapple tidbits, undrained, ½ cup of sugar, ¼ teaspoon of nutmeg, 1 teaspoon of seasoned salt and 1 cup of fresh cranberries, coarsely chopped. Spoon into a well-greased 2½ quart casserole. Sprinkle with ½ pound of bulk sausage meat that has been fried until it just begins to brown and top with ½ cup of bread crumbs. Bake 25 to 30 minutes in preheated 350 degree oven. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

SERVE TURKEY Waldorf Salad accented with an egg flower. The lemon juice in the salad will help keep the apples from darkening. A perfect way to serve the leftover bird.

Turkey Salad Nice Finish For Leftovers

This sparkling, fresh-flavored Turkey Waldorf Salad dotted with crisp, juicy diced apples heads the dinner salad list for this fall! Or, "flower" with petals of a hard-cooked egg and golden yolk center, and it will be the star attraction at luncheon. There's no better way to finish up that holiday turkey.

And here are the easy directions for this scrumptious Turkey Waldorf Salad:

- 1 medium unpared red apple, cored and diced (1¼ cups)
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 2 cups coarsely diced cooked turkey

- 1 cup sliced celery
- ¼ cup broken walnuts
- ¼ cup finely chopped onion
- ⅔ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
- ½ teaspoon salt
- Dash pepper

Lamb in the circle of good taste

Easy to prepare Pre-carved* Lamb Shoulder Roast—

Season lamb with salt and pepper. Roast uncovered in slow (325°) oven 25 to 30 minutes to the pound or until meat thermometer registers 175° to 180°—the higher figure if you like your lamb well done.

To give your lamb roast a piquant flavor, brush it with a mixture of 1 cup peach nectar and 2 teaspoons crushed, dehydrated mint leaves about an hour before you take it from the oven. Serve the extra sauce on the side.

* Have meatman pre-carve lamb on band saw and tie.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Monkey Business Made Easier Through Big Business Policies

DEAR HELEN:

The letter by the Lover Boy who bragged about cheating at conventions really burned me since my husband attends such things and our marriage is on shaky ground. These so-called "business conventions" are just monkey-business excuses for infidelity sanctified by the organization.

Why do companies almost always insist on hiring married men, then weaken the marriage by making it easy for the husband to play around?

I believe big business is responsible for more "marriage drift" than any other factor. If temptations weren't so easily supplied to men, maybe they would behave themselves. Actually, it's a status symbol these days to have a mistress — if you do, you're considered one of the inner circle. And if you don't pick up a dame when you're at a convention, the men think you're a little odd. I know — I've been a company wife for a long time. The married man who "gets around" is admired. The stay-at-home husband hardly ever makes it to a vice presidency.

And what of the wife? Well, she either gets a divorce and finds herself another man she hopes won't follow the crowd, or she finds herself another man without benefit of divorce, or she simply pretends this side of her man doesn't exist. I long ago gave up trying to make my husband a one-woman man. But I'm a one-man woman, and I'm ttired of pretending . . . But too comfortable in my fine home and country-club life to leave. You see, I'm honest too: While I hate big business for destroying my marriage, I know that it has given me advantages I couldn't give up. So what's next?

—CORPORATION WIFE

DEAR WIFE:

You've already decided what's next: more of the same, until your marriage drifts so far off course that you no longer care about anything but "comforts."

Has it occurred to you that big business may not be as much at fault as complacent wives? —H.

DEAR HELEN:

The man I'm living with could get no more than a legal separation from his wife — she's hanging on for dear life, or I should say "dear money" and revenge. She made life miserable for him and she doesn't love him. From his $600 a month paycheck, she gets $300, though she is perfectly able to work.

The two children would rather live with us, but no — we're "living in sin." I should point out he met me two years after the separation. He was completely true to his wife while he lived with her.

Who's sinful?

—AM I GUILTY

DEAR HELEN:

The Bible clearly states that anyone who divorces and marries again commits adultery, and, therefore, cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven. If people would wait and marry for love instead of sex they wouldn't have to worry about the high cost of divorce.

I think they should make divorce twice as costly and five times harder to get, to discourage this blight of our times.

THE PEOPLE'S SCHOOLS

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

New Law Ends Waste Of Crowded Schools With Empty Old Rooms

Hereafter, Californians can be spared the spectacle of school buildings standing empty while children attend double sessions in other buildings.

School district trustees will be able to sleep without nightmares over the possibility of being bankrupted by legal judgements if an earthquake should chance to come along and topple a school building.

Among the host of education bills which went into effect last week after passage by the 1967 Legislature (a California Teachers Association resume listed 274, besides 22 which Gov. Ronald Reagan vetoed) was one which at last does something about the Field Act.

It was because of the Field Act — and its interpretation by Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch — that school districts all over California last year were closing classrooms, even though they had to put the pupils on double sessions or rent portable buildings to house them.

Inclusion of large amounts of money to replace or repair buildings condemned under the Field Act contributed to the heaviest percentage of school bond issue defeats in California history the past year. Since almost all of these also included money for new buildings needed for increasing enrollments, the result has been further crowding of the schools — while buildings condemned under the Field Act continue to stand vacant.

Thanks to AB 450, by Assemblyman Leroy F. Greene, D-Sacramento, there need be no more such insanity.

Greene's bill attracted little attention during the legislative session, but it may go farther toward alleviating the financial troubles of many school districts than the highly touted AB 272, the state school aid measure which poured $169 million more of state funds into the districts. That amount of money is small change compared to the cost of immediately replacing every California school building which an engineer might find is not "earthquake-resistant" by Field Act standards.

Assemblyman Greene, himself a civil engineer, has given school trustees until Jan. 1, 1970, to have inspections of all buildings erected before 1933 and draw up plans for their repair or replacement. His bill, incorporated into the Education Code as a new Section 15501, also gives the districts until June 30, 1970, to call elections on bond issues or tax levies to make the repairs or put up new buildings. And it relieves the trustees from personal liability if the steps it outlines are followed.

The Field Act was hastily written and enacted after the Long Beach earthquake of March 10, 1933, shook down most of the school buildings in and around Long Beach. Most of those buildings were of brick masonry construction without steel reinforcement. In many cases they collapsed while ordinarey wood frame buildings alongside them survived the quake.

Only the fact that classes were not in session when the quake hit saved the lives of hundreds of Long Beach school children.

There was immediate demand for a law to make sure that no more such unsafe schools would be built. And that is what the Field Act attempted to do. It said nothing about existing school buildings. It merely laid down rules for future buildings.

But Attorney General Lynch last year held that every school board must have every pre-1933 building inspected and either closed or brought up to the act's standards. If the board failed to do so, he held, every trustee would be personally liable.

That's what set off the rash of inspections, added to the load of bond issues, and caused schools throughout the state to be shuttered even though there was not room for the children elsewhere.

The City Council of Santa Maria, incensed at what was happening, called on other city councils to join it in a resolution declaring Lynch's opinion was "causing actions that have the potentiality to bankrupt many of the school districts," that it was hampering passage of school bond issues, that "present structures have withstood earthquakes of near magnitude and intensity of the Long Beach 'earthquake,'" and that "there is no guarantee" that a similar quake would not topple the new buildings.

Not many city councils acted on the resolution. But fortunately the Legislature took steps.

The opening paragraph of AB 450 — the new Education Code Section 15501 — declares flatly that "it was not required (by the Field Act) that then existing school buildings incorporate these standards."

It goes on, however, to suggest that all these buildings should be replaced by 1983, when they will be at least 50 years old and presumably obsolete.

This now becomes the deadline for replacement, instead of immediately whenever an engineer declares a building deficient.

The act provides that if, after drawing up its replacement program, the school district is unable to pass the needed bond issue, it can without asking the taxpayers levy a special 10-cent tax to do the job. As the elections are to be held by mid-1970, this would provide 13 years to finance the replacements on a pay-as-you-go basis.

This is realism, replacing hysteria and absurdity.

Anti-LBJ Foes Readying Letters

BEVERLY HILLS (AP) — Actor Robert Vaughn says an open letter to President Johnson will advise him Friday that 5,500 registered Democrats are disassociating themselves from his administration.

Vaughn, chairman of a group called Dissenting Democrats, said a paid advertisement in the Los Angeles Times will announce the Democrats' decision.

The group has spread to 15 states since being organized six months ago, Vaughn said yesterday. He said the Dissenting Democrats hope to encourage "a peace candidate" for president who favors an immediate end to the war in Vietnam and negotiations with the North Vietnamese.

Girls Arrested For Miniskirts

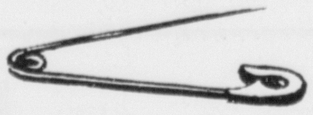

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) —Two teen-age girls who appeared as spectators during a narcotics hearing for hippies in Municipal Court were ordered arrested by Judge Ed Brock because they wore miniskirts.

The judge held them in contempt of court and ordered them jailed until they "purge themselves by obtaining clothing sufficient to cover the body in a decent manner."

The girls, both 17, were held until other clothing was brought to the jail.

Brock said he felt such behavior threatened to turn the courtroom into a burlesque house.

'Showboat' Returns, But It Is A Slow, Creaking Attempt

By KARL BARRON

SAN FRANCISCO — 'Showboat," often called by radio announcers "Jerome Kern's immortal Showboat," has some massive dents driven into its immortality by last night's creaking production at the Curran.

The final offering of the San Francisco Civic Light Opera season is neither opera nor light. Despite the truly beautiful music of Kern, this production labors from the 1880s to the 1920s in what seems like centuries and leaves both actors and audience visibly aged.

FEW HUMANS

There are those who will say its an old, dated show. It is — but it is also a turning point in musical theater, for it dared to use as its plot material Edna Ferber's novel based on two unhappy marriages, with a touch of miscegenation, and the discontented moans of slaves. Its plot is sentimental, but its people are human enough that even today we may be gripped by their simple problems — if they are presented as humans, not puppets.

There are few humans on the stage of the Curran. The best things in the show are the choreography with a spate of excellent dancers, and the restless settings by Oliver Smith, which turn and twist and revolve and go up and down, but at times are quite pretty. The first night audience, after talking loudly through the overture, well conducted by Louis Adrian, applauded each set change as loudly.

ELECTRONICS AGE

In the age of electronics, the Curran has fallen. No more must a performer belt it out to the balcony. He or she is aided by microphones along the footlights, plus beastly importations from Hell which I believe are known as "body transmitters." These operate in an alternating off and on fashion which gives the impression that the singer or speaker is bobbing down for the third time in a sea of liquid detergent.

A FLU BUG

Eileen Christy, scheduled to sing Magnolia, the major love interest, had "the flu bug," a loudspeaker voice coyly announced. Maureen Bailey, the understudy, is a charming and competent little actress, but does not have the voice for Kern's flights of musical fancy.

She was not aided by John Tyers as the gambler, Gaylord Ravenal, always referred to as "dasning." Tyers showed neighter dash nor vocal competence, playing the role with achromatic lack of fervor. Eddie Foy, Jr., danced a bit and was inaudible due to a particularly vicious short circuit; one felt that Seth Riggs as Steve wished he were somewhere else; and Pat O'Brien as Cap'n Andy achieved the effect of a dour undertaker, trying to hasten the whole thing to its deserved resting place.

FEW PLUSES

The few pluses: Virginia Capers' competent Queenie; Robert Mosley's "Ol Man River;" Gale Sherwood as Julie, singing "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man" and "Bill;" Audrey Christie's positive Parthy Ann; and Sandra O'Neill, completely out of the play's mood, but singing and dancing with vital abandon.

And would you believe? As a quintet of especially luscious Negro girls swung into the Charleston, the lady behing me murmured to her companion "They sure have rhythm!" It was that kind of night.

"Showboat" will play nightly except Monday with Wednesday and Saturday matinees through Dec. 23, I warn you.

Yoga classes will start next Wednesday at 11 a.m. for beginners and 12:15 p.m. for intermediates. The course is four weeks long.

Ballet classes will start on the following schedule: 10:30 a.m. Monday, adults; 3 and 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, pre-ballet for 5 and 6-year-olds; 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, ballet I; 8 p.m. Wednesday, adults ballet classes will last eight weeks. Ballet I is for beginners over 6 years old, ballet II is for students with previous training.

Registration will be half an hour before classes, at the center.

Brecht Play Will Launch New Theater

The new College of Marin theater in the just completed fine arts building will be the setting for Bertolt Brecht's play "Caucasian Chalk Circle" opening Friday as the first production on the boards of the theater.

Most of the opening night seats for the play beginning at 8:30 p.m. have been sold; a few are available at the college box office. The play will be repeated Nov. 11, 15, 16, 17, 18.

The drama department will be host to a black tie reception in the gallery of the arts building following the performance. The $2.5 million building on the Kentfield campus has facilities for music and drama, including a 604 seat theater with a stage equipped with the latest in electric gear and an orchestra pit which can be raised or lowered.

The play tells of Grusha, a peasant girl, played by Jill Cogswell of Tiburon, her flight from the governor's palace with the royal baby she saves during a revolution, the risks she takes to protect the child and her arrest and trial. Azdak, played by Richard Matthews of Hayward, is the unorthodox judge at the trial.

Stage settings, including a rustic bridge and peasant's hut, were constructed in the new stagecraft department of the fine arts building.

Symphony To Try New Location

The Marin Symphony Orchestra has changed the location of two of the three concerts in its sixteenth season from the College of Marin gymnasium to the new theater in the college's fine arts building.

The orchestra will play in the theater at 8 p.m. on Nov. 19 and again on April 7. The mid-season concert on Feb. 11 will be in the gymnasium, where concerts were held last season.

The 75-member symphony orchestra, conducted by Sandor Salgo, will be augmented on Nov. 19 to include additional harps, timpani, horns, bongos and maracas for Marius Constant's New York, '24 Preludes." The program will also include Mozart's Symphony No. 33 and Gustav Mahler's "Das Lied von der Erde" with guest singers Margery Tede and Rod Mac Wherter.

Festival Election

Officers of the Marin Shakespeare Festival will be elected at the annual general meeting of the organization at 8 p.m. Monday at the Red Kettle restaurant in the Montecito Shopping Center, San Rafael.

The Union Pacific Railroad stretches from the Missouri River to the West Coast.

Courthouse Littering Action Will Be Taken

Marin will look for some legal way to stop littering and damaging of the old courthouse lawn in San Rafael, the Marin County Board of Supervisors decided yesterday.

They acted at the suggestion of Mrs. Craig Waller of 2560 Center Road, Novato, who announced that "all kinds of young undesirable people" were sprawled on the courthouse lawn, littering the premises.

She said she went to the sheriff's office and learned to her surprise that there is no law against littering of public property.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney said the highway litter law is a vehicle code violation that applies to highways, and the county litter ordinance does not apply at the old courthouse because it is within the city of San Rafael.

Maloney said he would research state laws to see if some section would apply or suggest a new ordinance next week.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr suggested that such a law should be broad enough to cover littering and defacing of public properties in other areas like parks and water district lands.

Marin County Board of Supervisors also:

EMPLOYEE LAYOFF — Told Robert M. Anderson of Oakland, probation workers union representative, that county employees laid off because of the phase-out of the Family Rehabilitation Center should appeal through "normal procedures" instead of coming directly to the supervisors. Anderson asserted that probation worker Joseph Nimidoff's character had been impugned by the grand jury, and pressure applied so that Nimidoff is unable to get employment in any county job.

CHRISTMAS — Agreed that the supervisors meeting scheduled for Dec. 26 be cancelled because it is the day after Christmas.

ABAG — Reappointed Supervisor John F. McInnis to the Executive Committee of the Association of Bay Area Governments for another term through July 1, 1969.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN — Commended the League of Women Voters for printing "Your County Marin" booklet, a concise summary of the county's governmental structures and its officials. Mrs. F. L. Schell of San Rafael, president of the League of Women Voters of Central Marin, presented copies of the new booklet to the supervisors.

HIRED — Authorized the appointment of architect Sol Silver as senior planner at step 4 on an 87 per cent time basis, salary $10,000 per year; and Crissola Knudsen as social service supervisor at $1,033 per month. Silver cannot serve full time because he is a lecturer in the department of architecture at University of California at Berkeley.

PROMOTED — Approved the promotion of associate civil engineer William L. Hess to principal engineer, with a pay raise from $984 to $1084 per month. Hess succeeds Sheldon Bowers, who resigned effective Nov. 17.

STREET ABANDONMENT — Agreed to abandon a portion of the 40-foot right-of-way nearest Autumn Lane to leave future access for the abutting property of Mrs. R. V. Smith.

PATROL CARS — Bought 12 sheriff's patrol cars from Norton Brothers Dodge Co. in Petaluma for $32,715.52. Norton was lowest of three bidders who offered special Dodge vehicles of the type used by the California Highway Patrol.

FIRE TRUCKS — Bought from Rossi's Garage a standard fire truck chassis for $10,182.84 and a chassis for a fire truck-rescue unit for $4,068.73. Rossi's was sole bidder in two successive bids.

TAPE RECORDER — Bought a new tape recorder for Marin Juvenile Hall for $48.25.

SCHOOL BONDS — Set Dec. 12 as the date to open bids for the sale of $1,030,000 worth of bonds for the Tomales Joint Union High School District.

CIVIL RIGHTS — Gave assurance to the federal government that the county complies with the Civil Rights Act of 1964. This was requested by Mill Valley in order to qualify for financial aid from the U. S. Army Engineers on Mill Valley's small craft harbor.

BAD MILK — Rejected a $7,500 damage claim by Mrs. Beatrice L. Hipsley of Ross and her two grandchildren, who allege that polluted milk caused them to become ill last May 2.

DAMAGE CLAIM — Rejected a $10,000 damage claim by Robert C., Bernadine L. and Richard Jennings of 20-A Bellam Boulevard, San Rafael. They contend the county filled the area near Jacoby Street and Bellam Boulevard for flood control and covered up a spur track leading to their property.

NO PARKING — Approved "no parking" zones in Bolinas on Brighton Avenue accross the post office, Park Avenue at a curve, on Park Avenue opposite Terrace Avenue, and on both sides of Terrace.

PROGRESS PAYMENT — Approved a $357,137 progress payment to contractor Robert E. McKee for construction of the Hall of Justice.

Jackie Protection Extension To LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's signature is all that is needed to continue Secret Service protection for Mrs. John F. Kennedy and her children until March 1, 1969.

The Senate approved the measure by a voice vote yesterday and sent it on to the White House. The House passed the measure 302-11 Monday.

Stafford Lake Fund Slice Draws Unhappy Marin Note

Marin County yesterday voiced official displeasure at the state for turning down Marin's application for federal funds to develop Stafford Lake and acquire the China Camp area.

The Marin Board of Supervisors authorized Chairman Thomas T. Storer to dispatch a letter, expressing the county's disappointment in not receiving a portion of the federal Land and Water Conservation Fund, administered by the state. The letter will be directed to William Penn Mott Jr., director of the state Department of Parks and Recreation, and to state and federal legislators in Sacramento and Washington, D.C.

Mott, in rejecting Marin's request, explained that the Bay Area has received more than its share of the Land and Water Conservation Funds.

"My contention," said Pierre W. Joske, Marin County recreation director, "is that the Bay Area may have gotten a good share, but Marin County hasn't received a dime." Joske pointed out that Marin is a major recreation center for all the Bay Area.

"San Francisco people use our facilities," said Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen. "We ought to get them in as an ally.

Marin County now needs a lobbist supported by county staff members to fight for needed projects in Sacarmento and in Washington, D.C., said Supervisor John F. McInnis. "They have no way of knowing how important our projects are unless we explain to them with supporting data."

Reporter Out

MITCHELL, Ind. (AP) — Republican Norman Grissom, reporter for the Mitchell Tribune and brother of the late astronaut, Virgil I. (Gus) Grissom, was defeated yesterday in his bid for mayor by Jerry L. Hancock, Democrat. The unofficial vote was Hancock 981, Grissom 672.

An Ether Sub: Electricity

NEW YORK (SS) — Currents of electricity passed through the skull may sometimes substitute for chemical anesthetics.

Dr. Dominick Purpura, anatomist at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine, says electroanesthesia is not something that "every boy surgeon" is going to use. But it should be useful where other anesthetics are not readily available. The trick is to stay within a narrow range of electricity where the current is strong enough to cause unconsciousness but not strong enough to convulse the patient.

Electroanesthesia brings on unconsciousness by jamming brain circuits and disorganizing cell activity so that information transfer is cut off.

Students Producing Paper For Parents

Students at Redwood High School will go to press early in December with a newspaper to be circulated to thier parents, telling of student activities and high school classes.

The all-student production will be written by members of the staff of the school paper, the Bark; type will be set by other students and the paper will be printed by the printing classes. Editors are Bob Roth, son of Dr. and Mrs. Merall Roth of Greenbrae and Louise Nemschoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Nemschoff of Kentfield.

Romney Refuses To Answer On Rockefeller In Race

MADISON, Wis. (UPI)—Michigan Gov. George Romney yesterday refused to affirm or deny a report he had asked New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller to enter the presidential race.

Romney, swinging through La Crosse and Madison on a two-day tour of one of the key presidential primary states, had a persistent "no comment" to questions about a published report he had three times urged Rockefeller to throw his hat in the ring.

Romney ended his tour with a breakfast meeting in Oshkosh today.

The Minneapolis Tribune reported that Romney had told a meeting of Minneapolis-St. Paul business leaders on Monday that Rockefeller would not actively seek the GOP nomination. Romney said he was convinced of this because he himself had three times asked Rockefeller to run and each time the New Yorker refused, according to the Tribune.

The story was written by Frank Wright, who told UPI yesterday that his source was "unimpeachable."

Romney also answered "no comment" to question about a rumor that he had made a deal with Rockefeller. According to the rumor, Romney would get out of the race if he fared poorly in the primaries and throw his weight to Rockefeller.

Tiburon Girl Is Bitten By Dog

A Tiburon girl was bitten by a dog Monday in front of the Quick-Clean Laundry on Tiburon Boulevard, sheriff's deputies reported today.

Mrs. Betty S. Uston, of 139 Hacienda Drive, Tiburon, reported at the Tiburon fire department that her 2-and-one-half-year-old daughter Katie was bitten at 8:55 a.m. by a black and white dog, which was picked up by the Humane Society.

Just How High For Miniskirt?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — How high on the thigh can a stewardess' miniskirt rise?

Miniskirted stewardesses picketed Pan American Airways yesterday to say that this is not a question for the airline to answer.

Local 505 of the Transport Workers Union said it was in protest against a threat by the company to fire pretty stewardess Kristina Goud, 23, for wearing too short a skirt during an off-duty flight on a Pan American plane.

"Up with miniskirts. Down with Pan Am," read banners waved by the six stewardesses at San Francisco International Airport.

A Pan Am spokesman said Miss Goud was told two weeks ago that her skirt did not seem to comply with the company's image.

Miss Goud said she was threatened with dismissal, but Pan Am publicity director Robin Kinkead said this was not so.

Kinkead said the company would require that "employees traveling on its planes off duty, both men and women, be dressed within conventional limits such as would apply in any office."

Miss Goud said her blue and white skirt wasn't at all too short.

"It was really only three or four inches above the knee," she said.

Kinkead said company officials, the union and the girls will meet to iron out the issue.

Visalia Hospital Bonds Purchased

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —A $4.3 million bond issue of the Visalia Area Hospital Authority was purchased yesterday by a Bank of America underwriting group.

The bank syndicate paid a premium of $5,461 for a combination of 6, 5¼, 5 and 5-10 per cent bonds. The dollar bid was 100.127 and net interest cost to the district was 5.1480 per cent.

One Injured In 101 Crash

A passenger was injured as a car spun into the center divider on northbound Highway 101 near Lucky Drive yesterday after a two-car crash.

The collision occurred when a car driven by Gloria Jean Renstrom, 43, of San Francisco, changed lanes in front of one driven by Suzanne Marie Simmons, 29, of 101 Belvedere Drive, Apt. 7, Mill Valley, at 8:55 a.m., according to the California Highway Patrol.

Arthur M. McCormick, 73, of San Francisco, a passenger in the Renstrom car, was treated for scraped hands and face at Marin General Hospital.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

THIRD SECTION — SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1967 — 27

WET LEAVES NO PROBLEM

Light rain and a little wind during the night gave the San Rafael Public Works Department a chance to try out its new leaf loading gadget. It sucks them up like a vacuum cleaner. Fred Bishop, here operating the machine, said it works well. Forecasters give a 5 per cent chance of more rain here tonight and tomorrow. Winds will be south to southwest, 12 to 25 miles an hour. Fairfax Goes Beyond Pay Scale On Hiring

Fairfax city councilmen last night approved hiring a city building inspector at a salary higher than scheduled on the city's pay scale for the post.

At a special meeting, councilmen hired Ward J. Bourgeois at $676 a month; scheduled beginning salary for the job was $644, City Mgr. David J. Sumbardo reported today.

The higher pay was approved because of Bourgeois's eight and a half years experience as a building inspector for Santa Cruz County, Sumbardo said. He also has worked in contracting and real estate, the city manager said.

Bourgeois, 55, probably will start work Nov. 20, Sumbardo said. He will take on the job which City Engineer Richard J. Nelson temporarily held until his resignation Sept. 29. The previous city building inspector, Lester A. Britton, resigned July 31.

Marin Not In Quentin Death Probe

The Marin County District Attorney's office hasn't yet entered the investigation of a death at San Quentin, Assistant District Attorney Leonard Shaw said today.

San Quentin officials said they have nearly finished their questioning of Leo Estrada Robles, 22, an inmate in the psychiatric ward who was held Monday night when another psychiatric ward patient, Forrest W. Smith, 42, was found dead with his throat slashed.

Smith had been sentenced from Los Angeles on a burglary conviction.

Robles is serving a life sentence for first degree murder. He hung his cellmate, Willard Flynn, while confined to the Santa Clara County jail for the stabbing of two people.

Stolen Property Charge Put Off

No complaint will be filed against Betty Brobrowski, 19, arrested Monday for investigation of concealing stolen property, pending further investigation, Deputy Dist. Atty. Ralph Thomas said in Marin Municipal Court yesterday.

San Rafael officers said stolen items found in her apartment at 33 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, after a search warrant was obtained included a guitar, tape recorder, transistor radio, and a number of unidentified pills.

She was released from county jail.

Hub Trustees Seek Savings On Library

San Anselmo School District trustees agreed last night to save the district money by providing it its own supplimentary books for teachers instead of paying the county $6,500 a year for the service.

Supt. Stephen L. Parodi said the district had its own library personnel and trustees considered they could save 15 per cent of the cost.

A group of parents of children attending Isabel Cook School voiced concern over the possible danger of a building permit being issued Union Oil for a service staton at Sonoma and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Parodi said that Public Works Director Charles R. Leitzell, who attended the meeting with Mayor Arthur W. Smith, assured the parents safety factors had been considered by the planning commission.

Trustees pressed Marin County counsel to push further for an agreement with Mount Tamalpais Cemetery and Sunnyhills for an alternative to a road easement proposed for the past two years through the Redhills School site.

The board accepted the resignations of Redhill School teachers Paschal F. DeBianco and James Sutton and appointed in their place Mrs. Sally Brooks, at an annual salary of $6,048 and Neal C. Peek, at an annual salary of $6,621.

Reed Kindergarten Expansion Approved

Reed School District trustees last night approved an expansion of the district's kindergarten program to provide 180 instead of 150 minutes daily, to be financed with state funds (taxpayers money).

The program will be started as soon as additional personnel can be hired, according to Supt. H. Joe Edgington.

Trustees were shown a 30-minute demonstration of the Del Mar School physical education and physical fitness program, directed by teachers Mrs. Jan Haynes and Paul Stevens.

Reed School District board also:

SITE MODELS — "Saw two topographical models of the Reedland Woods School site presented by architect Ron Young and set a special board meeting for Nov. 27 for final decisions on the location of the school on the site.

BORDERLINE CASE — Agreed to transfer of 21 units of Mariner townhouses property on Paradise Drive in Corte Madera from the Larkspur School District to the Reed District. The transfer was previously approved by the Larkspur district to straighten out a borderline problem on the map between the two districts.

SCHOOL NURSE AWARD — Endorsed the nomination of Mrs. Kay De Brecht for the Schering School Nurse Award for the year, recognizing her "outstanding service to her profession and to the district."

NEW TEACHER — Hired Robert B. Roberts as a humanities teacher at Del Mar at $6,900.

Three-Day Voter Drive Announced

A three-day drive to register voters will be held by the Leagues of Women Voters of Central and Southern Marin tomrrow throught Saturday.

Registration tables will be manned tomorrow from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the CO-OP in Corte Madera, at the Emporium on Friday from 7 to 9:30 p.m. and on Saturday from noon to 4 p.m., at the Purity Store in Montecito on Saturday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and at the Novato Fair Safeway Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Tape Recorder Stolen From Locked Auto

William Ernest Brennan of 711 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera, reported to police this morning tha duiring the night someone had stolen a tape recorder valued at $130, two cartridge tapes and three gauges from his automobile.

Brennan said he had locked the car last night but that this morning both doors were open.

Sausalito Mayor Wins Hearing On Waterfront Restaurant Plan

The Sausalito City Council last night ordered a public hearing on plans for a new waterfront restaurant.

In the Dec. 5 hearing, the council will review both a variance and a use permit sought for the 94-seat restaurant to be built at Humboldt Avenue and Johnson Street, behind the Post Office, by Madden and Lewis, Inc.

The planning commission has approved the use permit, but Mayor Mel Wax asked for a council hearing to pin down a height limit so the building will be no higher than the Post Office.

The council also ordered a hearing on the varience even though Madden and Lewis had not yet appealed planning commission action. The commission last week had an indecisive vote on the variance, which would allow the restaurant to have one of its 13 parking spaces slightly undersized.

City Mgr. George M. Patterson told the council that the two commissioners voting against the variance actually were voting against the proposal to make payment to the city in lieu of providing another 10 parking spaces.

In-lieu payments should be decided by the council, and the commission "has no business" voting on them, Patterson said. The council has set a rate of $2,000 per parking space, but no in-lieu payments have yet been allowed under the new ordinance.

In another action, the council approved publication of an ordinance allowing police to issue citations for misdemeanor violations fo city ordinances.

The move stemmed from a recent case in which nine persons were jailed for blocking a stairway. The case was thrown out of court on grounds the arrests were too severe a way of handling the violation.

Under the new ordinance, the policeman would have the option of issuing a citation or making an arrest on the spot.

Patterson outlined a new proposal for development of three parks surrounding city parking lot No. 1 behind Vina del Mar Plaza. One park would be built on the site formerly proposed for a new library, another would be built on fill between the Trade Fair ferryboat and an apartment building south of it, and the grade of the parking lot would be lowered two or three feet to improve views of the bay.

Park Street would be closed, and El Portal Street would be made one way and rerouted to connect with Humboldt Street.

In the central waterfront plan proposed by planning consultants, the parking lot would be converted to a park. Patterson said his plan would provide 205 parking spaces as well as three large parks.

The council sent the plan to the planning commission for study.

The Sausalito City Council Also:

YACHT CLUB — Set a hearing Dec. 5 on a variance sought by the Sausalito Yacht Club to build an addition to their waterfront clubhouse. The application has had three indecisive votes by the planning commission.

PLANNING COUNCIL — Approved an amended draft of a plan establishing a joint City-County Planning Council of Marin. The council would be an advisory body only, Patterson said.

AMBULANCE — Awarded a contract to Campbell-Bishop Chevrolet of Corte Madera to provide an ambulance for $6,043. One other firm bid $6,860.

USE PERMIT — Set a hearing Dec. 5 on a use permit request by Dr. Lloyd Benson to enclose a deck at 317 Second Street.

LOT SPLIT — Approved, with amended conditions, a lot split by Nicholas Newbeck at 212 Cazneau Avenue. The changes were suggested by City Atty. Leland H. Jordan.

PARKING — Ordered an ordinance drawn to ban parking at two bus stops at Napa Street and Bridgeway.

VEHICLES — Ordered an ordinance drawn allowing police to go onto private property to remove abandoned or dismantled vehicles.

MARION AVENUE — Approved a parking ban at a turnout on Marion Avenue where a switchback makes maneuvering difficult.

PLANTING — Approved addition shrubbery at a fence at Fire Station Two.

ULTILITIES — Learned that Pacific Gas and Electric Co. has allotted $11,000 for undergrounding utilities in Sausalito next year. Under a new cost breakdown, PG&E will now pay the cost of the wire and the cost of laying wire underground to private properties. The property owner will be required to pay costs of trenching, backfilling and supplying a conduit from the building to a point 18 inches underground.

STUDY — Set a study session on general matters for 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday.

Unidentified Man In Death Jump Off Span

An unidentified man jumped to his death from Golden Gate Bridge about 11:12 a.m. yesterday near the south tower.

A bridge electrician heard a splash in the water and notified the bridge toll sergeants's office, according to California Highway Patrolman Douglas A. Scott.

Scott said the man was described as elderly, oriental, neatly dressed in a dark suit. No identification was found on the body, which was recovered by the Coast Guard and taken to the San Francisco coroner's office.

The death was the third in three days from the bridge. John Harder, 43, of Daly City, leaped to his death Sunday and Kimberly Lehan, 19, of Novato, jumped Monday.

Marinwood Directors To Elect Dec. 5

The Marinwood Association board of directors last night drew up a slate of proposed new officers for 1968 and set Dec. 5 as the election date.

The proposed slate includes George Gazulis as president, to succeed Jack G. Nixon; John Osborne, vice president; Wayne Heldt, treasurer; and Al Fisher, secretary.

The posters will stress the warning signs which may indicate the beginnings of cancer, according to Mrs. August Belden Jr., public information chairman of the branch.

The first non-stop transatlantic flight was made from Saint Johns, Nfld. in 1919.

Vietnam Assessment: Honorable Way Out For U.S.

(Last of three articles)

By MARK ETHRIDGE JR.
Editor, Detroit Free Press

Since the United States became involved in South Vietnam, our reasons for being there have changed constantly, just as our reasons for bombing North Vietnam have changed constantly.

From an offer of economic aid in return for reforms, made by President Eisenhower on Oct. 1, 1954, the United States has escalated its commitment to helping a sovereign nation (which it isn't) "maintain its independence," to President Johnson's statement in his speech of April 7, 1965, that our purpose was to stop the power of China at the 17th Parallel and to stop China's fomenting of "wars of national liberation." . . .

The way out, unless it is already too late, is to capture instead of thwart the social revolution which South Vietnam needs.

Within the last three months the United States has been given two opportunities — one planned and one unexpected — to do just that.

One was the elections in South Vietnam, sponsored by the United States, in which a president and a vice-president were elected with our clear but unspoken support.

The other was the special congress of the National Liberation Front (NFL), the political arm of the Vietcong, in which a political program for South Vietnam was drawn up. The text of the NFL program was announced on Sept. 1.

It is not a platform to make Hanoi reel with pleasure. It envisions the reunification of North and South Vietnam, as did the Geneva agreements, but it does so on the basis of uniting two equal halves, "step by step and through peaceful means on the principle of negotiations between the two zones without either side using pressure against the other and without foreign interference."

The platform calls for a foreign policy of neutralism, establishing diplomatic relations "with all countries regardless of the social and political system, on the principle of mutual respect for each other's independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity."

Other than the usual polemics expected of old revolutionaries, the 19-page document is remarkably restrained. It is, certainly, more socialistic than South Vietnam's present constitution which was adopted last April. But it is also more democratic.

The NLF program, for example, calls for freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of assembly, freedom of creed and freedom of demonstration.

All these freedoms are severely limited in South Vietnam. Four newspapers have been closed in Saigon since Aug. 13. It is a crime to speak on behalf of "neutralism." A public meeting or a public demonstration requires approval by the National Police, with seven days' advance notice.

The NLF program calls for land reform, by purchasing the land of holders of extra large tracts and distributing plots of "landless or land poor peasants" free of charge. South Vietnam's land reform program has, it might be said, never gotten off the ground.

It calls for the abolition of the U.S.-built "concentration camps," which in all honesty is a more accurate description than the one the United States uses — "New Life" hamlets for "refugees."

There are, to be sure, some sections which are unacceptable in terms of creating a nation. The NLF would seize the lands of "U.S. imperialists hard cruel landlords," and it would "severely punish the diehard thugs acting as efficient agents of the U.S. imperialists."

If the NLF is talking about such lands as Camranh Bay, or such thugs as National Police Chief Gen. Nguygen Ngoc Loan, few could object. These are points which must be spelled out.

But on the whole it is an acceptable document, thoroughly in keeping with what the United States has proclaimed as its own hopes for South Vietnam.

This, then, together with the election of our "puppet government," gives us two tools with which to capture this revolution.

Twenty-four billion dollars a year, 13,500 Americans killed in action and another 87,000 casualties have bought the United States the right to use its weight on the South Vietnamese government to accomplish those reforms which President Eisenhower first demanded in 1954 and have yet to come to pass.

They have given us the right to demand — and enforce — an end to public and private corruption, a better and more universal education system, a fairer tax structure, a decent social security and welfare program, an at least minimal public health structure, a liberalization of the new constitution and, in short, a government responsive to the needs of the people.

It is questionable whether the present government of South Vietnam is capable of meeting those needs. The men in power are military mandarins — political dinosaurs not easily adaptable to change.

But the United States can demand changes, and we carry a big enough stick — courtesy of the National Liberation Front program — to get those changes.

We can well say — to president Theiu, to the NLF and to the world — that we will give Saigon one year to make a substantial start on those changes, and no longer will we be deluded that doing nothing is doing something substantial. We can say it and mean it, or otherwise we can accept the mid-August program of the National Liberation Front as a basis for negotiation on United States withdrawal.

If the National Liberation Front is seriously nationalistic, it will accept such an offer — unless we have destroyed our credibility — and vanish into the woodwork. They will emerge a year from now either as part of a new social structure of South Vietnam or as a recognized and legitimate opposition.

To close the credibility gap we must offer to produce a financial balance sheet each month, and commit any money saved in war costs toward reforms — for schoolbooks, highways, scholarships at Harvard Business School or anything else needed to get reforms under way.

This means, at the same time, that we must offer to halt all aggressive military action against the Vietcong, particularly search - and - destroy missions. If the NLF accepted the program, Hanoi would have no reason to supply arms and ammunition, and thus there would be no reason to bomb.

In either case, one fact remains clear: South Vietnam needs a revolution, a New Deal, and it can no longer be delayed.

As in the cities of America, its people are undergoing not merely a revolution of rising expectations, but of rising demands. And as more than one philosopher has said, no force is so powerful as an idea whose time has come.

'Draft Card Burners' Most Likely Phonies

In the emotionalism over the war in Vietnam and the militant posture of the United States, the prime gesture of defiance has come to be the burning of a draft card.

Almost daily, young men (generally bearded) "burn their draft cards" on some improvised platform near an induction center or other military installation.

Strangely, we read few reports of these young men being arrested and tried for this crime — for it is a crime under federal law, punishable by up to $10,000 fine and/or five years in prison.

WE ARE INDEBTED to a bit of research by the Chico Enterprise-Record for the explanation. The Chico paper sought to find out why there are so few arrests for draft card burning, and got this answer from U.S. Atty Gen. Ramsey Clark, via Rep. Harold T. Johnson of California's Second District:

In about four cases out of five, the militant youth does not burn his draft card at all. He announces he is burning his draft card. But the piece of cardboard to which he puts the match is actually just an identification card or some other piece of disposable wallet-filler.

The throng of young people who watch his public gesture of defiance, of course, don't know this. They believe the young man is a martyr who has invited prison to dramatize his protest against militarism.

THIS CALLOUS hoodwinking of serious-minded people who soberly object to the draft on grounds that are neither disloyal nor in any way subversive is, we expect, of a piece with much of the violence and near-violence that corrupts "peaceful demonstrations."

It is of a piece with the carrying of Vietcong banners by some in the "peace march" on the Pentagon. It is of a piece with the corruption of the "New Politics" convention to a vehicle for the most extreme "Black Power" advocates. It is of a piece with the violence that has become a hallmark of too many "non-violent" demonstrations.

It is, in short, a conscienceless grandstand play.

UNFORTUNATELY, because of the presence of these grandstanders, agitators and outright subversives, the genuine, conscientious objections to militarism, and particularly to the Vietnam war, become clouded and distorted.

As the St. Louis Post-Dispatch commented in a recent editorial on the Pentagon demonstration:

"As always, the violent few attracted more attention than the peaceful many. Silly extremists . . . overshadowed the thousands of conscientious Americans who went to the Pentagon not to provoke disorder but simply to express their convictions on war in general and the Vietnam war in particular.

"These are the people that the President and the nation should bear in mind. . . Had they not been there, the tiny minority of misguided or malicious inciters to violence would have had no situation to exploit, and no publicity to garner. This non-Communist, nonviolent, nonsubversive majority, which was present in truly impressive numbers, ought not to be forgotten in the general repugnance to the violent acts and words of the eccentric fringe."

"Draft card burners," Vietcong extollers, inciters to violence do not benefit the cause of peace. It is doubtful whether they intend to. Their stock in trade is unrest.

Wonder if there's been a rush on Selective Service offices for new draft cards since long-haired war protesters learned GIs are smoking pot in Vietnam?

'First Aid' Urged To Help Commuters

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Any suggestion concerning improving transportation facilities for Marin commuters is unpopular these days unless it makes reference to the defacing of the Golden Gate Bridge by adding a second deck. My suggestions, however, are merely for first aid treatment to ease the pain for Marin morning commuters until some sensible solution is found to facilitate the flow of traffic. They consist of the following:

1. Prohibit tanks, lumber trucks and other tortoises from crawling up Waldo Grade southbound from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. If bicycles can be kept off that stretch of highway, then the equally dangerous behemoths can readjust their schedules.

2. Delay the changing of the guard at the toll plaza until 9:00 a.m.

3. Keep all southbound toll gates open until 9:00 a.m.

Somehow it seems that the last people to be considered are the commuters who plunk out their legal tender every day to get from Marin to San Francisco. Untold cash outlays for tires, brakes and gasoline, to say nothing of frayed nerves, cardiacs and ulcers, are the price the long suffering commuters pay for the lack of innovation and intelligent management by those to whom we entrust our affairs.

Too Many, Too Rude Collect For UNICEF

Editor, Independent-Journal:

"Trick or treat for UNICEF" may have seemed a marvelous idea at its inception, but Halloween night we experienced a few notable flaws. Of the 70-plus constumed callers who rang our bell, seven children also carried UNICEF collection cans. After giving to the first three UNICEF collectors we tried to explain to the others that we had given our share. Without exception, the response from the remaining UNICEF collectors was one of discourtesy or downright rudeness.

I know it's a tough job for these little ones to fill their collection boxes without resistance from proposed donors, but isn't sending children into areas already covered really defeating the purpose?

Encouraging Diem Led Us Into Vietnam

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your Nov. 1 editorial on Vietnam contains the statement that "the Geneva Accord called for a national election throughout Vietnam in 1956," which, of course, is true. But then you continue: "The partition made that impossible."

The cease-fire accord signed in Geneva July 21, 1954, divided Vietnam along the Ben Hai river. It provided for a temporary buffer zone, withdrawal of French troops from North Vietnam and an election in 1956 to determine the country's future as a reunited whole.

How then could the temporary partition be liable for preventing an election which provided as one of its prime objectives the elimination of this very partition?

The reason Diem cancelled the election was not due to the partitioning but was due to his knowing, as you relate, that Ho Chi Minh was certain to win such an election.

In addition, it seems entirely possible that by encouraging Diem not to honor an agreement to hold a democratic plebiscite under international supervision the administration of President Eisenhower will be regarded by history as being primarily responsible for not averting our further tragic involvement.

FRED MacDONALD
Novato

(Editor's note: The temporary line and demilitarized zone included in the Geneva accord did not constitute partition of Vietnam. However, the subsequent Southeast Asia treaty recognized South Vietnam as a separate state, thus turning the temporary line into permanent partition.)

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

A FANCY and huge dinner party was given in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria in honor of a visiting dignitary who, unfortunately, when called upon to speak pulled a thick manuscript out of his pocket and began to read it in a dull and interminable monotone.

The M.C. could do nothing about guests at the rear tables who began sneaking through the exits, but he was really embarrassed to discover that an important guest on the dias, only two chairs down from the speaker, had fallen sound asleep. He reached over behind the speaker and hit the sleeper soundly on the head with his gavel — not once but twice. The second blow caused the sleeper to jerk his head up, and survey the scene in obvious confusion. Then he realized where he was, heard the unsuspecting speaker droning on and pleaded in a voice that could be heard 10 rows back, "Hit me again, I beg you. I can still hear him!"

Job Corps Draws Criticism In House

By ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON — A sharply critical, unpublished General Accounting Office report is weighing importantly in the impending House battle over continuing the widely controversial multi-billion dollar anti-poverty program.

The GAO findings zero in severely on the Job Corps.

The outlook in the House is not promising for the turbulence-wracked and scandal-scarred Job Corps.

AMONG BOTH Democrats and Republicans there is strong opposition to this project — which has cost some $865 million in its three years' existence and produced at the most not more than 15,000 so-called "graduates," about whose subsequent employment little is known.

House Democratic leaders have told President Johnson it's very possible the House may kill the costly Job Corps program, and replace it with the Republicans' Community Skill Centers to train youths in conjunction with local industries.

The GOP plan would be administered by the Vocational Rehabilitation Administration. Its cost is put at $190 million to train 43,350 enrollees at an average outlay of $3,500, as against $295 million earmarked for the Job Corps with an enrollment of 38,000 and an average cost of $7,500.

THE GENERAL Accounting Office findings are particularly significant because they focus on Camp Parks, Pleasanton, Calif., long hailed by OEO officials as "one of the best" Job Corps centers.

After a detailed study, GAO reported:

"While the contractor has reported that a number (enrollees) have been successfully trained and placed, an even larger number have left without completing a training program. Information has not been prepared to show the gains made by individuals during their stay at this center."

"The contractor's initial estimated program costs have been far exceeded."

ANOTHER SCORCHING document having considerable impact on House sentiment is a letter from the father of a Job Corps "graduate," who after 28 months of training in three different centers at an estimated cost of $25,000, still lacked the necessary skill to get a job.

Following are highlights of this report from Carl T. Thompson, Oklahoma City, Okla.:

"My son Gary graduated from the Job Corps. I am informed that he graduated from both basic and advanced electronics. He signed into the Poplar Bluff, Mo., center on Jan. 30, 1965, was transferred to Tongue Point, Ore., on Feb. 20, 1966, and then to San Marcos, Tex., Jan. 20, 1967. He was released June 29, 1967.

"Gary is still ill-equipped to take his place in society. He is uneducated and untrained. We waited for the school year to start, only to find that not one credit can be obtained for his 28 months in the Corps."

A similar complaint was voiced by four counselors who quit the Albuquerque, N.M., women's center. They charged the girls were not learning anything that would be of practical value for them.

Bagley Well Up Ladder At Getting Bills Passed

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — One of the oldest pastimes in Sacramento is the game of judging or rating of legislators, and there are as many different sets of standards as there are for making a martini or cooking a steak.

While all of this judging presumably is to come up with who is a "good" or a "bad" lawmaker, some rate them on personality; some on how they vote on good or bad bills; some on how they represent their district; some on how they go along with the party and many other methods.

THE CALIFORNIA Taxpayers' Association has released a study which rates the legislators, during the 1967 session, on their effectiveness. This is accomplished by taking the number of bills a lawmaker introduced and tracing their course through the legislature, with statistics on how many were killed, how many passed, and how many vetoed by the governor.

The range runs from two legislators who didn't have a single bill passed to a senator who had 55 bills passed and an assemblyman who had 54 bills approved.

Then too, there may be some who feel the legislator who has the fewest bills passed is doing the most for the people. However, it's a rare district that doesn't have a few problems that could be improved or solved with the aid of a bill.

A new senator, H. L. Richardson, R-Arcadia, is one of those with a zero score for his first session.

IN THE LOWER HOUSE, Assemblyman John L. Burton, D-San Francisco, authored 97 bills but only got 14 of them through, for a low average of 14.4 per cent. Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, introduced 92 bills and wound up with 54 passed for a 58.7 average.

Midnight Bandit In Larkspur Fitting Nightcap For A Rodeo

A bandit held me up in the middle of Larkspur at 1 a.m. the other day.

He — or she — was a very conventional old-fashioned bandit.

A black mask hid his face except for gleaming eyes.

An accomplice, obviously not so brave, lurked just out of range of my car's headlights.

The bold one stood in the middle of the Magnolia-Madrone intersection, obviously trying to decide whether or not these post-midnight wayfarers in a little car had anything worth taking.

Finally, the bold bandit whisked his ringed tail and ambled up steps on the hillside. He faded among the deep-shadowed redwood trees. His partner disappeared into the little park.

My wife, my mother-in-law and I drove on up the canyon, wondering that two fat, fuzzy raccoons still prowled much-peopled Larkspur.

At that, the little beasties were fang-by-claw with dangerous non-humans. The steps the bold bandit used lead to a home accupied by a pet jaguar and a puma, among other creatures.

THE HOLDUP was a fitting nightcap to an evening of nostalgia for the Old West — and an exciting evening, too.

The three of us had made our annual trek to the Cow Palace, for the Grand National livestock show and rodeo.

Anyone born on a farm or ranch — as I was — knows that the glamor and the excitement of the Cow Palace is nothing like life out where stars and moon are the only street lights and fences are barbed wire.

The Cow Palace is another world, too, for even the suburban Marinite. In its noisy, smelly halls it's easy to forget peace marches and planning hassels, P-TA crises and commuters' crashes.

Even rodeo sports are different; they mostly pit one individual against a balky critter and a clock, not against some other person. Sure, there is commercialism; literally hundreds of dollars ride on how stubbornly a steer refuses to be wrestled off its feet, or how hard a bronco bucks.

There is an innate earthiness to Cow Palace life that sometimes embarasses a sophisticated urbanite.

FOR EXAMPLE, take the entertainment by a baby-faced 25-year-old named Wayne Newton. In his skin-tight western garb he looked like Liberace in gold cowboy boots — but he could ride a horse. His voice had the puzzling gender-sound of the old "Call for Phillip Morris" commercials. His songs were mostly trite — but he got to his listeners.

Before he finished singing and showing an amazing, seemingly endless talent for playing different musical instruments, he had the city folks forgetting their reserve and unabashedly joining the fun.

After a last round of corny jokes, he rode around the ring again. Women stood up to salute him; their men stood up too.

PART OF the charm of western ranch folk is their irreverence. They like their Cadillacs and their fast horses and their fat livestock, and they'll use any city-spawned gadget that helps them all prosper—but they don't hesitate to stick pitchforks in things taken too seriously by other folks.

For instance, the winning Brahma bull rider the other night was Lawrence Scott, from fabled San Angelo, Tex. His steed's name might be a burr under the saddleblanket of those who could feel it may show bigotry.

But that bull — it certainly was big, and it was black, and it was tough.

So, the cowboys have named that bull Cassius Clay.

I wonder whether Muhammed Ali would feel insulted by the idea.

The Army Must Fulfill Its Mission —But Recruiting Sure Is Hell

WASHINGTON — The operations room of the 24th U.S. Army Recruiting Corps was tense with excitement. General Rubicom, the commanding officer, came in with his staff and stared at the map on the wall.

"Any news from the front, colonel?"

"Yes, sir. We've heard from the Dartmouth patrol. They managed to get on campus unseen and got their card table set up in the administration building. They report they signed up four students for Officers Candidate School before they were discovered and had to retreat."

"GOOD SHOW! Any word from Princeton?"

"No, sir. Not for two days. The last report we had was that Captain Reilly and his men were surrounded by students who wouldn't let their car move. They're running short on water and food, and I don't know how much longer they'll be able to hold out."

"Call the Air Force and ask them if they'll make a drop."

"I did, sir, but the weather's been bad and all planes are grounded."

"Dammit, colonel, we've got to get relief to them somehow."

"I know, sir. We were thinking of sending in a relief force, but we've used up all our reserves at Harvard."

"WHAT'S THE SITUATION at Harvard?"

"Lieutenant Shivers is trapped with three recruiters in the office of the Harvard Crimson."

"Lieutenant Shivers?" a major cried. "That's my brother. How can you send a kid up to place like that?"

"Easy does it, major," General Rubicom said grimly. "Lieutenant Shivers knew what he was doing when he volunteered for the 24th U.S. Army Recruiting Corps."

"SURE, YOU CAN SAY that standing here in this nice comfortable office seven stories underneath the Pentagon. But what about the kids you send out day after day to Ohio State and the Universities of Michigan, Wisconsin and Berkley? What are you running, a suicide mission?"

"Major, I will overlook your insubordination because I know how you feel about your brother, But I would just like to assure you that I'm not heartless. How do you think I feel every time I send a patrol out to Yale or Columbia or Oberlin? Sure, I know they may never come back. But we've got a job to do, and I can't let emotion stand in the way of the Army's recruiting plans. Somebody's got to do the dirty work. War is hell, son."

AT THIS JUNCTURE, the colonel says, "Sir, we've just got word from Reilly at Princeton."

"What does he say?"

"His message reads: 'Send us more students'."

The general smiles. "Isn't that typical of Reilly, Colonel? I want to recommend him for the distinguished recruiting cross, and send out that quote to the press. We need a hero at a time like this."

"Sir, the First Provisional Recruiters Brigade has just got back from Stanford," a staff officer says.

"How many missing?"

"Five. Schwartz, Weatherill, Puchinski, Kelly and Ascereiil were last seen going into the student union to rescue a Dow Chemical Co. recruiter and they never came out."

The general looks off into space and says, "Why do the good ones always go first?"

Human Rights Session Slated

Committee reports on employment, police community relations, education and housing will be presented tomorrow's 8 p.m. meeting of the Marin County Human Rights Commission in room 343 of the Civic Center.

Chairman James Quiett will report on the commission's request to the Marin County Board of Supervisors for an assistant to the executive director.

The supervisors yesterday declined to authorize the new job of assistant. They said they prefer to wait until a new executive director is hired, and then determine what kind of assistance would be needed.

Novato Council To Repeat 'Voice Of City Hall'

Anyone with complaints against the City of Novato or questions about the city can air them to the city council from the comfort of his own home from 7 to 10 p.m. Thursday.

The Novato City Council will hold its second "Voice of City Hall." Residents of the area may phone the city hall and question any of the five councilmen on any subject pertaining to running the city.

Mayor J. Wayne Womack said that he expects the bulk of the questions this year will be on the proposed $8,000,000 bond issues. This is $5,750,000 for streets and $2,250,000 for parks to come before the voters at a special election on Jan. 23.

Mill Valley Teener Missing From Home

William Francis O'Callaghan of 312 Evergreen Lane, Mill Valley, has reported his son, Patrick Michael O'Callaghan, 15, ran away from home Saturday, sheriff's officers said today.

The father said the youth may be visiting relatives in Fulton, Sonoma County.

Stable, School, Home Invaded In Burglaries

Three burglaries were reported today by sheriff's deputies.

Eugene J. Spagnoli, 404 San Francisco Boulevard, San Anselmo, told officers Sunday that someone entered his unlocked home, taking an undisclosed amount from a money collection. He said a radio also was taken.

Sylvia Diane Hamlett, 331 Olema Drive, Fairfax, reported Sunday that burglars forced a window of a tackroom building near the intersection of Glen Drive and San Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax.

Loot included horse brushes and combs.

Someone broke a window to enter Lagunitas School, San Geronimo, entering to steal two footballs. The break-in occurred Friday or Saturday, officers said.

Signs On Agenda

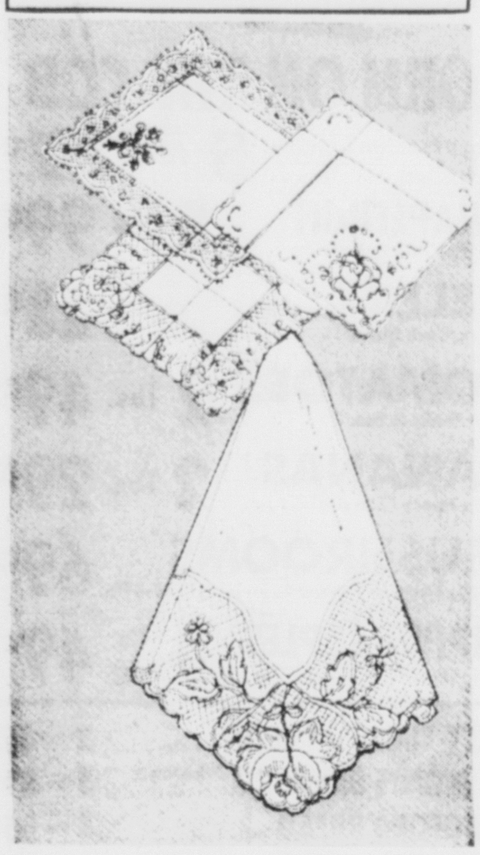

Ross town councilmen will again consider action to be taken over non-conforming sidewalk signs at Jean's Kitchen at their meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the town hall.

NEW STATE LAWS

Marriage Tariff Up; Help For Cat

SACRAMENTO (AP) — It'll cost more to get married, and be illegal to shoot a ringtailed cat from now on. The 1967 regular legislative session's new laws take effect today.

Legislators passed 1,808 bills they deemed necessary to cope with California life in the 1960's. Gov. Ronald Reagan signed 1,725 of them into law.

Those considered "urgency" legislation — the bills that could get a two-thirds favorable legislative vote — took effect immediately upon the governor's signature.

Among these were the bill expanding horse racing seasons, the $1 billion tax bill, the $5.08 billion budget and the measure making it illegal to carry loaded guns in most public areas.

Most bills, however, do not take effect until the 61st day after the session officially ends. This means today this year, since the lengthy session didn't officially end until the veto-override meeting in September adjourned.

Some of the new laws may puzzle the average citizen, but there normally is a serious reason behind most legislation.

Lawmakers decided to make it a crime to shoot the ringtailed cat, for instance, because this little animal is in danger of extinction. If it were wiped out, so, too, would be a part of California history, for the ringtailed cat was a frequent companion of the gold miners.

The reason for raising the marriage license fee from $5 to $6 is simply the desire of local governments for more money, and the fact that inflation has caught up with the expense of tying the knot.

Pilots should be aware that as of today it will be illegal to land or take off from a public roadway — except in emergencies.

Parents will be interested to know that minors from 18 to 21 now will be abie to contract for auto liability insurance without their permission.

If someone knocks on your door and it turns out to be a summons server, you'll at least have the satisfaction that a new law requires the language of a legal paper be more understandable to the layman.

The mailman who whips out his trusty dog repellent will be encouraged, perhaps, to know that his weapon has definitely been excluded from the list of substances whose usage is forbidden by law.

For any disgruntled executive thinking of pilfering his firm's prize industrial secret and hot-footing it to a competitor, it might be wise to remember that starting today California has its own law against stealing industrial secrets.

Those who transfer title to their motor vehicle, such as when a car is paid off and title shifts to the buyer from his financer, or those obtaining a duplicate title now will pay $3 instead of $2.

For the automotive industry itself, there is a long-sought prize — legislation creating a New Car Dealers Policy and Appeals Board. It will regulate this industry, previously overseen by the Motor Vehicles Department, and four of its nine members will be new car dealers.

Other important bills taking effect today include a liberalization of the strict abortion law; strengthening of the rights of persons sent to state mental hospitals or threatened with commitment; extension of the anti-cancer quack law; broadened court discretion for minors to marry; and elimination of the past requirement that vehicle registration cards be displayed so as to be visible from outside.

Forum Slated On Capital Punishment

"Capital Punishment — A Social Necessity or Error" will be the topic of the Mill Valley Forum tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the Mill Valley City Hall.

Rick Cluchi, a former San Quentin Prison inmate who wrote a play, "The Cage," which has been performed on educational television in this area, will speak against the death penalty.

Lawrence Drivon, San Joaquin County district attorney, will defend it.

Earl Reuter, coordinator of police studies at Merritt and Laney Colleges in the East Bay, will speak for a reduction in the types of crime punishable by the gas chamber.

Peter Behr, Marin County supervisor, will moderate the forum, first of a series.

Gun Club Members To Repair Damage

Members of a gun club which met in a garage at the rear of the home of Richard D. Conn, of 22 Karl Avenue, San Anselmo, have agreed to repair damage done when they removed their equipment from the garage Friday night, according to San Anselmo police.

Conn had reported to police that the garage was vandalized while he and his wife were attending a dance. When police contacted club members, they said they had broken a window and removed temporary wiring while taking out their possessions.

Nothing Reported Missing From Store

San Rafael police reported Monday the Seven-Eleven Grocery Store at 703 B Street was broken into Sunday night, but nothing appeared taken.

Thieves, apparently looking for money, turned over a drink stand, ransacked two cash registers, a desk and the counter but found none, said police.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Emotions Of A Person Can Hinder Physician's Diagnosis

VAN DELLEN

Typical medical problems are easily solved, especially when laboratory tests and X-rays confirm the diagnosis. Treatment usually is successful when instructions are followed carefully. The art of medicine enters the picture when there are many non-contributory symptoms and the physician must make a diagnosis from a mass of confusion.

Many of these patients have complaints involving every organ of the body, from the top of the head to the end of the toes. Some are disturbed and unable to give a logical story of their illness. The impatient doctor may throw up his hands and refer the individual to a psychiatrist.

EXPERIENCES such as these are frustrating to the young physician. Under the circumstances, the lack of tact and the artlessness of the adviser do not solve the problem. The victim is diagnosed as having hysteria or neurosis, especially when all laboratory tests are normal.

Medicine is an art that is not learned in textbooks and laboratories; it is dependent upon personality, experience, maturity, and security of the physician. On the other hand, it takes "two to tango" and people vary in intelligence, education, and personality. They may not trust or be able to communicate with their medico. If frightened, the victim misinterprets questions, or leaves out significant symptoms, habits, or contributory experiences. Frustration and depression ensue because the person is certain no one believes, or can help, him.

WHAT IS THEIR problem? The majority have hidden anxieties and needs that are not recognized either by themselves or by the medico. In time they develop a "chip on the shoulder," become defensive, or just sit back and wait for omniscient words of wisdom. Resentment sets in if a consultation with a psychiatrist is suggested. Best results are only obtained when there is full cooperation and the physician is skillful in communicating with his patient.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal).

LATE HOT FLASHES

Mrs. B. W. writes: What makes me break out into a sweat while sitting perfectly still and relaxed? I passed through the menopause 20 years ago.

REPLY

This is a vasomotor reaction representing sudden dilatation of the skin capillaries. Hot flashes occur in men and women and may be unrelated to the climacteric or glandular system.

PARAKEET FEVER

V. W. writes: What are the symptoms of parakeet fever?

REPLY

Fever, bronchitis, and other coldlike symptoms. The condition is suspected whenever a parakeet owner develops a bizarre respiratory infection. But chest X-ray and special laboratory studies are needed to make certain.

Postman 'Stores' A Pile Of Mail

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A postman with an eye out for short cuts has been dismissed after postal inspectors found he stashed about 40,000 pieces of mail in a Bernal Heights garage the Post Office said.

The small mountain of mail, some of it postmarked as early as Oct. 1, was delivered after it was found in the garage on the mailman's route.

The Post Office did not identify the employee, pending a decision on criminal charges by the U.S. Attorney's office. The man had worked as a letter carrier for more than a year.

Escapes Injury

A San Francisco Examiner truck driven by William Howard Nelson, 45, of 100 Harbor Drive, Corte Madera, overturned on Via Navarro in Greenbrae Monday afternoon while Nelson was attempting a U-turn, according to Larkspur police. Nelson was not injured, police said.

Surveyor 6 Is Bucking Odds On Safe Landing

PASADENA (UPI) — America's Surveyor 6 zeroed in on the moon's Sinus Medii today, bucking odds that could turn it into a$65 million junk pile on its mission to find a safe landing site for Apollo astronauts.

A computer analysis gave Surveyor 6 only a 47 per cent chance of landing unscathed on the Sinus Medii, or central bay, a rugged lunar plain located almost dead center in the sunlit side of the moon.

A delicate midcourse maneuver last night slightly altered the speed and trajectory of the moon robot to aim it at the selected impact point.

If all goes well, the three-legged robot will soft-land on the moon at 4:58 p.m. PST tomorrow.

There are 212 registered Democrats in the precinct. Hamerquist got 88 votes in 1966.

Widow Sues For Return Of Ruby Letters

RENO, Nev. (UPI) — A widow with five children is seeking return of three letters written by Jack Ruby while he was waiting trial in Dallas for the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald.

Mrs. Dorothy Rossi, Sparks, asserted that she loaned the letters to Dr. Millard H. Duxbury, Reno, who has refused to return them. The suit said the letters were worth $25,000 to collectors.

She said she sent Ruby some money for cigarettes and candy and received three thank - you notes from him before he died in jail after his conviction.

Ruby's letters were "sweet, nice, kind letters," Mrs. Rossi said.

She said Ruby did not mention the assassination of President John F. Kennedy except "he did say he wanted to talk to the people of the United States to tell his side of the story. He didn't sound crazy or anything."

Nuclear Plant Go-Ahead Given

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Pacific Gas & Electric Co. received authorization from the California Public Utilities Commission yesterday to build a nuclear - fueled generating plant in Diablo Canyon near San Luis Obispo.

The site 12 miles southeast of San Luis Obispo has been leased by PG&E for 99 years with an option to renew for another 99 years. The plant, which will cost an estimated $188,413,000, will generate 1,060,000 kilowatts of power.

Hearings on the utility's application covered 20 days in San Luis Obispo and San Francisco. PG&E must still obtain a construction permit and operating license for the plant from the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission.

Puerto Ricans Happiest World Cup Twosome

MEXICO CITY (AP) — David Jimenez and Chi Chi Rodriguez of Puerto Rico are one of the strongest—and happiest—teams in the 15th World Cup Golf Tournament that starts tomorrow.

They came to Mexico to win. But no matter what their final score they figure to have more fun than anyone else on the 7,500-yard Club de Golf Mexico course.

Rodriguez and Jimenez will be among 80 golfers when play opens in the 72-hole tournament for national pride and personal prestige. Entries come from 36 countries, Wales, Hawaii, Scotland and Ireland.

INJURED FOOT

The Puerto Ricans, playing on three good legs and an injured foot, had their first practice round on the narrow, hazard-filled course yesterday and only a few of the 80 or so members of their gallery abandoned them when word came that Jack Nicklaus of the United States had started his practice round.

Rodriguez and Jimenez traded banter between themselves and with spectators as they visited the practice tee before setting out for a quick nine holes.

"Watch this one go out of the park," the 130-pound Rodriguez said as he took aim at a 50-foot fence at the far side of the practice tee. "See if you can match it," he told Jimenez.

The ball did clear the fence, as did three of Jimenez' drives.

COST TOO MUCH

"I can't keep this up," the younger Puerto Rican said. "Balls cost too much. You've been on the tour five years and now you're rich." He told Rodriguez.

Chi Chi picked up a wedge chipped the ball into his hip pocket and headed for the first tee. Jimenez limped along behind him.

"A drawer fell on my right foot," said the young Puerto Rican making his third World Cup appearance. "It's cut at the root of the toe and bruised on the arch."

Jimenez said the foot pained him but it didn't hurt his game during his practice round or dampen his good humor.

Rodriguez said he expects the toughest team competition to come from Americans Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer and South Africa's Gary Player and Harold Henning. A 277 total, 11-under-par, should win individual honors, he predicted.

FLEW IN

Palmer, who flew his own jet to Mexico City after a 17th place finish in Hawaii this past weekend, was the last golfer to arrive and didn't have time for a practice round. He had his first crack at the lengthened course, site of the 1958 World Cup Tournament, in today's pro-am.

Roberto de Vicenzo, ill in Buenos Aires, was replaced on the Argentine team by Fidel de Luca. The absence of the 43-year-old British Open champ removed Argentina as a major threat to the defending champion Americans.

The United States is paired against Ireland in the first round tomorrow.

JIM GILMARTIN

Belated Happy Birthday To 49er Elmer Collett

JIM SHORTS:

A belated happy birthday to 49er rookie guard Elmer Collett of Mill Valley who turned 23 yesterday. Comments from friends and foes alike indicate a great future for the former Tam High and College of Marin star who is filling in capably for injured all-pro John Thomas.

Matt Hazeltine, another former Tam High gridder who made it big in college and pro ball, will be the featured guest on TV Channel 5's "49ers Today" show next Sunday. (Collett was last Sunday's guest.)

A veteran of 13 pro campaigns, Matt has twice played in the Pro Bowl (1963-65) and is still regarded as a top notch linebacker, an intelligent defender with an unusual ability to diagnose plays.

Four-Year Cal Letter-Winner

Matt was a rare four-year varsity letterman at Cal. As an 18-year-old freshman at Berkeley in 1951 he started the "Big Game" alongside All-American Les Richter. Hazeltine won All-American honors in 1953 and 1954, was named outstanding lineman of the 1955 Shrine East-West game and selected Northern California "Player of the Year."

With 13 pro seasons under his belt, he is the senior 49er in point of service.

ROUGH HOUSE — Maybe I'm getting old, but Kezar's grandstands seem to be getting rougher. I don't mean the surface of the seats, but the occupants. More and more fights seem to be erupting each Sunday.

Now Cops Can't Get Into Stands

The City of S.F. erected a wire fence separating the stands from the playing field, which is amusing. Because now the cops on the field can't get into the stands to break up the fist-swingers.

TALL FANS—If you happened to notice a particularly tall group of young men at the 49er-Ram game Sunday they were members of the S.F. Warriors. Although they played the previous night in Philadelphia, the pro cagers requested of Coach Bill Sharman that the team leave immediately after their game to return to S.F. in time to see the pro grid game.

GIRLS IN SPORTS — Two lovely young Marin County misses will be conspicuous at a couple of major Bay Area sporting features during the next week.

Connie Harmon of Sausalito has been chosen theme girl for the Import Car Show Nov. 14-19 at San Francisco's Brooks Hall; and Joyce Kyle of San Rafael will reign at Saturday's 10th annual Alpineer Club Ski Swap at S.F.'s Hall of Flowers (12 noon to 10 p.m.)

Largest Foreign Car Show

The Import Car Show is the nation's largest foreign car exposition and the Ski Swap offers for sale thousands of items, including new and used skis, boots, parkas, sweaters, car chains, ice skates, etc.

NICE TIMING—One day last week Gary Young of 332 Devon Drive, San Rafael, a senior at Terra Linda High, decided to join the Mogul Ski Club to take advantage of its 12 one-day ski trips to Squaw Valley, Alpine Meadows, plus overnight ski trips and an Easter outing to Utah.

Well, as luck would have it, Young was a winner of a door prize at Stan's for Sports Shop of San Rafael in conjunction with pro racer Pepi Gramshammer's appearance there. The prize: One free membership in the Mogul Ski Club. It saved Gary $35 membership fee.

Takes More Than Shoulder Dislocation To Stop Russell

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Player-coach Bill Russell of the Boston Celtics suffered a dislocated right shoulder last night but it was the Cincinnati Royals who wound up hurting all over.

Russell, who suffered the injury in a collision with Guy Rodgers late in the second period, popped the shoulder back into place during the intermission and played all but two minutes of the second half as the Celtics rallied for a 113-103 victory at Cincinnati. It was the Celtics' seventh win in eight games.

John Havlicek led the Celtics with 23 points and Bailey Howell had 20. Adrian Smith had 27 for the Royals, who played without the injured Oscar Robertson.

The St. Louis Hawks scored their 12th victory in 13 games when they beat the Chicago Bulls 111-106, the Philadelphia 76ers defeated the San Diego Rockets 130-105 and the San Francisco Warriors topped the Seattle Supersonics 126-112.

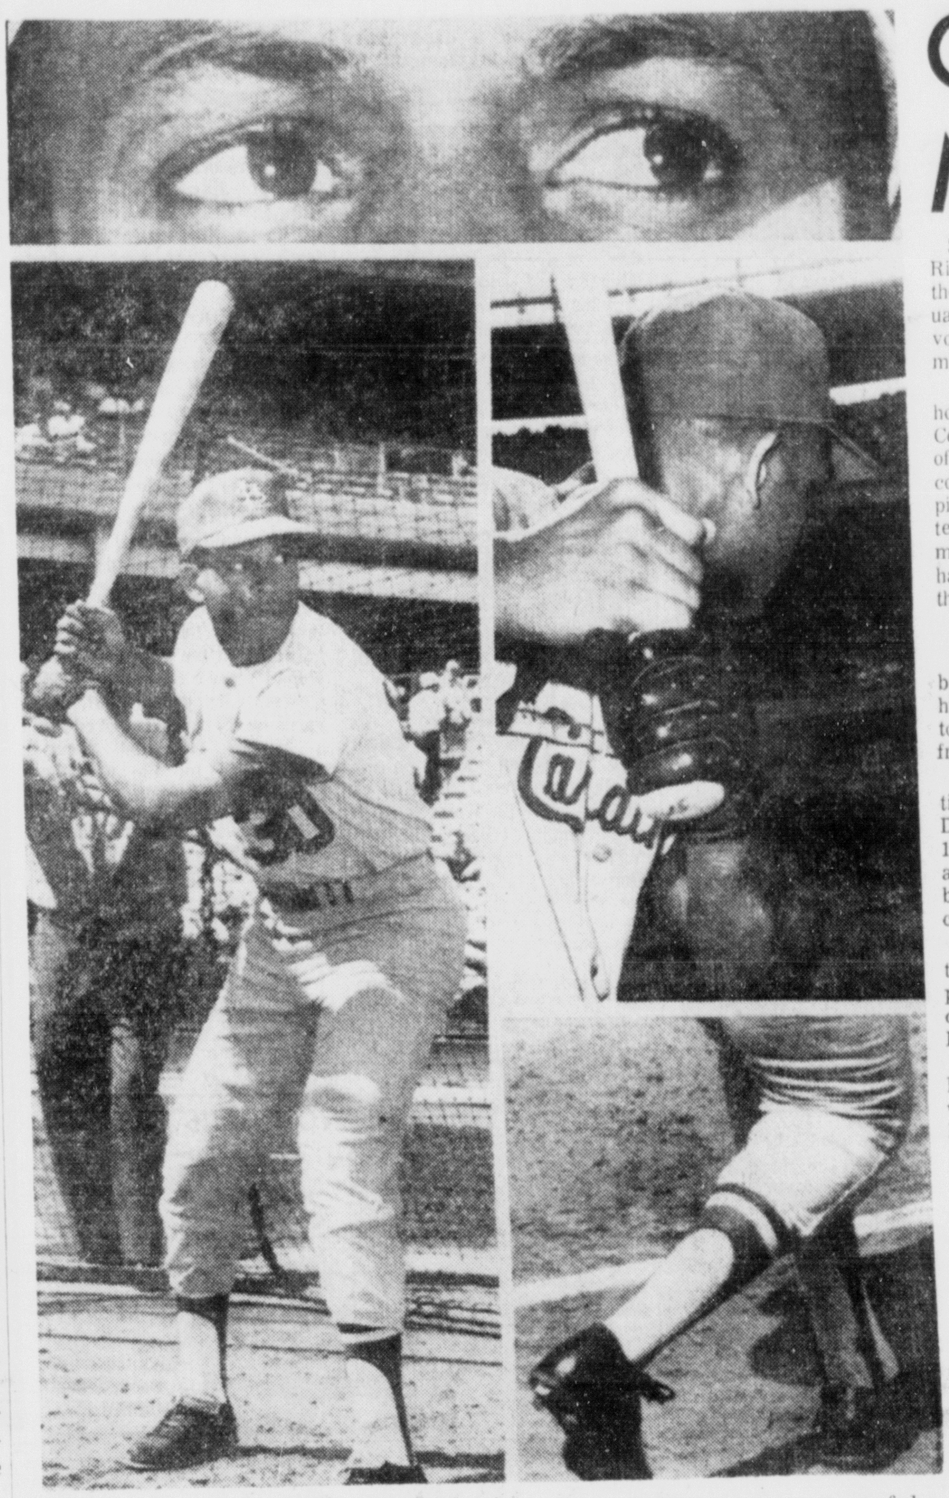

Paul Silas and Joe Caldwell scored field goals in the final two minutes to secure the Hawks' victory after the score was tied three times in the last 12 minutes. Zelmo Beaty led the Hawks with 24 points and Bob Boozer had 25 for the Bulls.

Hal Greer scored 30 points and Chet Walker had 27 as the 76ers won their eighth game in nine starts. The 76ers led 62-48 at halftime and outscored the Rockets 35-25 in the third period.

Mrs. Moser Wins At Las Gallinas

Mrs. Kenneth Moser won the Las Gallinas Women's Golf Club's Captain's Trophy Tournament yesterday with a 75-17-58.

Mrs. Moser and Mrs. Robert Ritter headed the best nine list with net scores of 28 followed by Mrs. Louis Garat and Mrs. Chales Wagner with net scores of 29.

ANATOMY OF A MURDERER — That's Orlando Cepeda of St. Louis, a pitcher killer, who yesterday was named the National League's Most Valuable Player. Cutouts show keen eyesight, batting stance, powerful arms and legs—all of which helped the former San Francisco Giant star lead the Cardinals to the world championship. (AP Wirephoto)

Blasts From Supersonics Wake Up A Sleeping Giant

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— Rookie center Bob Rule of Seattle awakened a sleeping giant from San Francisco and it cost the Supersonics a ballgame.

Rule did a marvelous job of holding Warrior center Nate Thurmond to only five points in the first half of last night's NBA game won by San Francisco 126-112. But the 6-11 Warrior center got angry at himself, smacked his fists together and came back to score 15 points in the second half and pull down a total of 28 rebounds.

CLOSE AT HALF

Thanks to Rule's defensive maneuvering and sheer hustle Seattle trailed by only one point, 60-59, at intermission. The Warriors played generally sloppy ball with 33 turnovers, 10 more than Seattle.

The win kept the Warriors in second place behind Western Division leader St. Louis. San Francisco has won seven of its last eight games, losing only to the world champion Philadelphia 76ers who invade the Cow Palace Friday night for the Warriors' next game.

STREAK

The Warriors pulled ahead of Seattle 70-61 in the third quarter but the Supersonics closed to within seven points. Then the Warriors streaked for eight straight points to safely pull ahead 96-81 in the final period.

Four players scored more than 20 points for San Francisco which again exhibited a balanced scoring attack. Fred Hetzel led all scorers with 25, Rudy LaRusso bucketed 21 and Thurmond and Jim King each tallied 20.

Bob Weiss paced Seattle with 20 points, rookie Al Tucker added 19 and Rule and Walt Hazzard each chipped in with 18.

Nicklaus Holds Financial Lead

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus is holding on to his lead in winnings among professional golfers but Arnold Palmer's success in the Hawaiian Open has narrowed the gap between them to less than $5,000.

Nicklaus, who sat out the Hawaiian tournament, has banked $188,998 in official winnings and $22,568 from other sources for a total of $211,566. Palmer is in second place with official winning of $184,063 and total earnings of $193,964.

Others among the top ten and official winnings:

Billy Casper, $129,423; Julius Boros, $126,785; Dan Sikes, $111,508; Doug Sanders, $109,455; Frank Beard, $105,778; George Archer, $84,344; Gay Brewer, $78,548; and Bob Goalby, $77,106.

Cepeda Is Proudest Man In Baseball

SAN JUAN (AP) — Puerto Rican Orlando Cepeda, named the National League's Most Valuable Player in a unanimous vote, is a very happy and proud man.

Interviewed at his Bayamon home after his selection today, Cepeda gave most of the credit of his award and tremendous comeback with the world champions St. Louis Cardinals to team-trainer Dr. Robert Bauman, "whose selflessness and hard work helped me greatly this year."

UNANIMOUS

The Cards' big first baseman became the first player in the history of the National League to receive unanimous support from the MVP voters.

He won with the highest batting average since Pittsburgh's Dick Groat won it batting .325 in 1960. Cepeda finished the season also with .325, hit 25 homers and batted in 111 runs, top in the circuit.

"This is the most marvelous thing that could happen to a ball player," Cepeda said after receiving a telephone call from St. Louis announcing the award.

"I feel very proud, but I really don't know what to say. I want to thank all the people who helped me.

"SO BIG"

"This is so big, specially when I was so close to quitting the game because of my knee injury. Imagine, for the second year in a row a Puerto Rican player wins the award," Cepeda added.

He was referring to Roberto Clemente, the Pittsburgh Pirates' outfielder winner last year and third in the voting this year. Clemente received 129 points this time and finished behind catcher Tim McCarver of the Cardinals, who got 136 points.

Ron Santo, Chicago third baseman, was fourth and Hank Aaron, Atlanta outfielder, was fifth.

Cepeda was named as the number one choice on all the 20 members of the Baseball Writers Association of America named to pick the MVP. He received 280 points.

THE TRADE

The 30-year-old player is in his 10th season in the majors. He was traded last year by the San Francisco Giants to the Cards for pitcher Ray Sadecki.

The big slugger, who will get back in uniform around Nov. 21 with his winter league team, the island's defending champions and leaders Santurce Crabbers, said he is very grateful to Dr. Bauman, Dr. Sollofief of San Francisco, Dr. Ralph W. Sierra of San Juan, and former island weight lifting champion Roberto Santana, now a physical fitness expert, for his recovery and eventual comeback.

Santana developed a special metal shoe for Cepeda about two years ago, when his knee injury was about to put an end to his baseball career.

Redskins Hold Secret Locker Room Huddle

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Redskins, winless in their last five National Football League games, held a secret locker room huddle yesterday with coaches excluded.

Linebacker Sam Huff, who called the player meeting as team captain, said the Redskin record was among the topics.

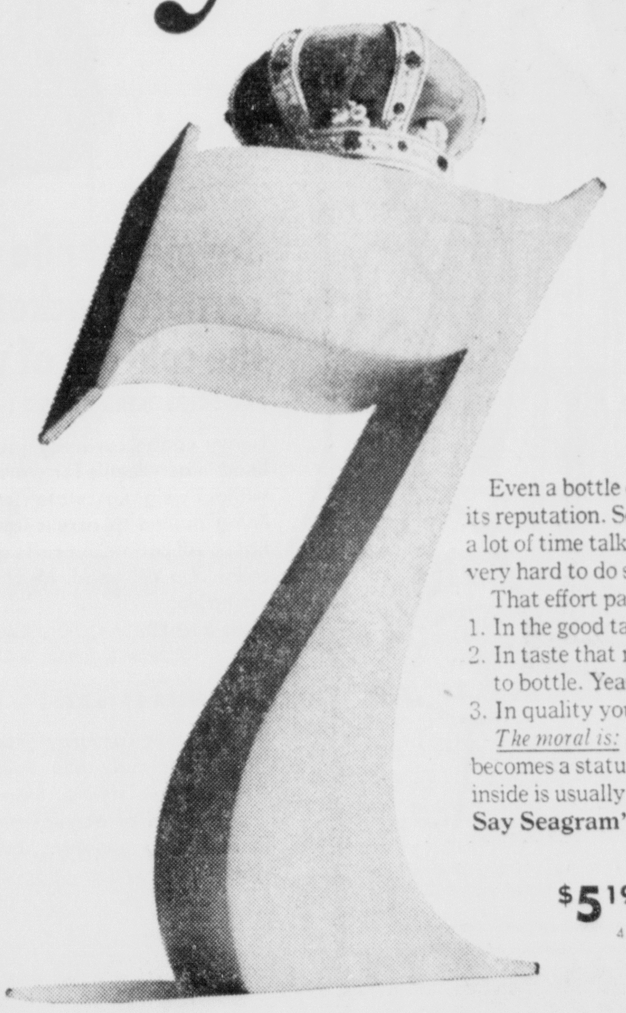

Huff said the players discussed "the record and a lot of little things; I don't want to say anything more."

The Redskins, 2-4-2 for the season, have sagged in the final quarter for five straight weeks. Twice they wound up with ties, three times they lost. They host the San Francisco 49ers Sunday.

Coach Otto Graham charged Monday that some of the players were not hustling.

Huff, who played in six championship games in eight seasons with the New York Giants, confirmed he called the secret meeting.

Status Symbol

Even a bottle of whiskey has to earn its reputation. So instead of spending a lot of time talking quality, we try very hard to do something about it.

That effort pays off for you three ways.

1. In the good taste of the whiskey.
2. In taste that never varies. Bottle to bottle. Year to year.
3. In quality you can be proud to serve.

The moral is: If the number on the bottle becomes a status symbol . . . the whiskey inside is usually responsible.

Oaks Fall To Dallas Quintet

DALLAS (UPI) — Oakland's LaVern Tart, top scorer in the American Basketball Association, took on the runner-up last night and the number two men seemed to be trying a little harder.

Bob Verga of the Dallas Chapparals hooped 23 and held Tart to 17 and that was the difference as Dallas took a 118-112 decision to shove the Oaks down to 4-6 for the campaign.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

John and Charles Beasley, not related except that they play for the same team, added 21 and 18 to the winners' attack. Big Jim Hadnot and Willie Porter carried the Oakland attack with 30 and 29 respectively.

Dallas built up a 118-107 lead and easily survived an Oakland burst in the closing seconds.

After losing all three games of their road swing, Oakland will return home to face Houston tomorrow night.

Hot Action: L.A. Kings Edge Seals

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Even without fans flocking to the gates the rivalry between the Oakland Seals and Los Angeles Kings is providing thrills comparable to the traditional battles between the older sports franchises in the Northern and Southern parts of the state.

The National Hockey League Kings put on a dandy show before just 5,164 fans at the Sports Arena last night, coming from three goals behind to whip the Seals 5-4 and extend their winning string to two games.

ON TOP

The victory left the Kings perched comfortably on top of the newly formed Western Division of the NHL. Los Angeles leads second place Pittsburgh by four points.

The Seals who tumbled deeper into last place with the loss, jumped off to a 2-0 lead in the first period, then added a third goal in the second period before the Kings got rolling.

Los Angeles scored three times in the second period to tie it up and set the stage for the exciting third stanza.

Oakland center Billy Harris rammed home the goal which gave the Seals a 4-3 edge at 3:49 of the final 20 minutes.

TIES SCORE

But with 11:29 gone Eddie (The Jet) Joyal turned on the red light with his third goal of the season for the Kings to tie it once again. The deciding marker was registered by left wing Brian Smith when his 15-foot slap shot flashed into the net with just 4:17 remaining in the game.

Oakland, which has failed to win in its last 10 outings, tangles with the tough Toronto Maple Leafs tonight at 8 o'clock in the Oakland Arena.

First period—1, Oakland, Swarbrick 5 (Burns, Laughton) 13:31. 2, Oakland, Laughton 1 (Burns, Caron) 17:22. Penalties—Amadio 16:47.

Cal's Frosh Will Continue Grid Slate Despite Death

BERKELEY (AP) — The University of California Berkeley freshman team voted last night to play the Southern California freshman football game.

Bob Simmons, 18, of Bakersfield, a 6-foot-3, 225 pound defensive tackle, died early yesterday after receiving an injury in last Saturday's Stanford-California freshman football game.

University athletic department spokesmen said the cause of death was respiratory complications resulting from a fractured vertebra.

Coach Jim Cullom quoted Simmons' father, who upon hearing the news of his son's death, said: "At least he died doing what he liked to do best."

Rugged Bruce Kilby Wins I-J Prep Football Honor

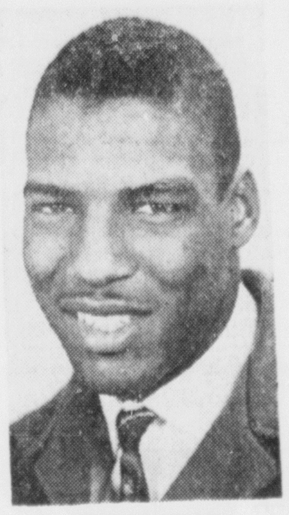

Just by talking to him, you wouldn't know that Bruce Kilby is the toughest end around.

But he is.

Face to face across a table, he's friendly, talkative, a clean-cut fellow, to use a pet phrase.

Face to face to a quarterback, or an end sweep, he's not so friendly.

He gets stubborn, persistent. To a quarterback or a blocker, he's like a specter or a shadow that he cannot shake, a bounce-back ghost in pads that has marked off a piece of territory like a no-man's land.

BRUCE KILBY
Prep of the week

FORGET IT

Saturday afternoon, the Novato Hornets forgot about the left side of the field, or should have.

Kilby hounded junior Greg Davenport all day, forced him into mistakes, blocked a pass or two, cut off sweeps and turned them into dead-end plays, to help the Terra Linda Trojans clinch a share of their second straight Marin County Athletic League title with a 20-0 victory.

Coach Don Lucas called it Kilby's best game. It earned him the Independent-Journal's Prep of the Week Award.

(Others considered were Trojan quarterback Dave Edson, Redwood fullback Pete Richter, San Rafael fullback Dave Bariski and Tamalpais end Leroy Barrow.)

Lucas puts it simply.

"He's the finest defensive end who ever played in this league," he said. "It's impossible to block him."

For anybody that likes the finer points of football, Kilby is a joy to watch in action.

He is quick. You can knock him off his feet and he's up in time to get in on the play. His hands are always up and batting. And when he gets to a quarterback, it's like watching a condemned building crumble.

"He doesn't stay blocked," Lucas said. "Nobody can compare to him in passing rushing. You just forget about the left side, that all."

Kilby, an all-league choice at his position last year and a cinch again, almost didn't come out for football last season.

"I had wanted to concentrate on basketball," he said. "But I finally did come out."

He didn't start at defensive end until the third game of the season last year.

"I was pretty nervous and tense," he remembers, "until I hit somebody."

TOUGH FOES

His defensive work isn't always easy.

"Charlie Collins of San Rafael was tough," he said. "And those Novato blocking backs were tough too."

Kilby, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Albert Kilby of 1085 Las Ovejas, Terra Linda, would like to go on to school and "maybe get into coaching."

If and when he does, the quarterbacks of the MCAL will probably personally see him off, and wish him luck.

On the quickest train or plane out of the county.

Mira To Get Test Against Big Linemen

REDWOOD CITY (UPI) — Quarterback George Mira will work out against the big defensive linemen tomorrow and Friday so that the San Francisco 49ers coaching staff can determine whether his knee has mended.

If so, Mira will be activated for Sunday's battle at Washington. If not, rookie tackle Dave Olerich from University of San Francisco will join the squad.

There is one opening since tight end Monty Stickles broke his forearm against Los Angeles and is out for the season. The 49ers have a good man to shift to the tight end spot in running back Bill Tucker. He is considered a good pass-catcher and could wind up playing there permanently before his pro career is done.

Coach Jack Christiansen yesterday held a special meeting with backs and receivers after the regular practice.

Final Grid Games On Tap

By Sunday morning, it will be all over.

The 1967 Marin County Athletic League football season will be finished by then. The only important issue left to decide is whether or not Terra Linda High will have to share the title with Drake again.

That depends on the Pirates and the luckless Tamalpais Indians.

It will be resolved Saturday afternoon at Kentfield when the two teams collide at 2 o'clock.

Terra Linda has already grabbed a piece of the title pie and will close out its season in a highly anti-climactic fashion against Marin Catholic Saturday night at 8 o'clock in San Rafael.

Speaking of San Rafael, the Bulldogs and Redwood Giants will go for the lesser leavings of either third or second place Friday night at San Rafael.

Novato is all through already, having the misfortune to close out against Terra Linda last week.

"We're favored this week," Hornet coach Al Scott offered as his final quote of the year.

The Pirates, who lost a tough one to unbeaten Balboa last week, could run into a time bomb Saturday afternoon.

Everybody is still waiting for the Indians' first league win.

Tam coach Willie Hector, who must be beginning to feel like an expectant father, is still waiting.

"We were too eager last week," Hector said of the 27-25 loss to San Rafael last Friday. "There hasn't been a team that we couldn't beat. It's just that we're losing."

San Rafael coach Bob Muster, whose Bulldogs just barely did avoid disaster last week, is optimistic.

"It could be a fight for second," he said. "We made a lot of mental errors last week. I guess the kids got a little complacent on defense."

Terra Linda coach Don Lucas was pleased with the title-clincher against Novato last week, although it wasn't the Trojans' best game of the year.

"I liked the way we hit primarily," he said. "Offensively, we didn't do as well as we'd like to or should have."

Lucas is a little wary about the mismatch Saturday night against Marin Catholic.

"We have absolutely nothing to gain and a lot to lose," he said. "And you never can tell in these games. If we don't play football and they put a good game together, anything can happen. We only won 13-0 last year. I know we've said that before and then beaten somebody pretty badly, but it can happen. We'll go with our best."

'Snow' Or 'Go' 49ers Off Sides

There was a time when the Chicago Bears were the most talkative team in pro football. Now the Los Angeles Rams are a talkative outfit, too. That's understandable. George Allen, who used to be one of George Halas' assistants in coaching the Bears, now is head man of the Rams.

To make certain that the Rams became a talkative team, Allen brought Bill George with him to Los Angeles a year ago. George was defense captain of the Bears and he had a simple code of four words that enabled him to move his defense men like pawns on a chessboard.

With his code, George could send linebackers one way, the line another and the secondary in or back if necessary. The code words sounded like a weather report — lightning, thunder, cyclone, blizzard. The key words always seemed to be predicated on imaginary storm conditions.

OCCASIONALLY, a strange word would creep into George's code, such as the time in 1960 when he kept shouting "Mutt" in a game against the Rams. This disconcerted the Rams considerably because their quarterback in 1960 was Bill Wade and Wade always sent his team into a run or pass pattern with the word "hut."

Jon Arnett, ace halfback of the Rams in 1960, was especially disturbed by George's shouting "Mutt" repeatedly. "We usually run on 'hut' and George kept yelling it ahead of Wade," said Arnett. "We were continually penalized for being in motion before the ball was snapped."

THE RAMS PROTESTED after their 1960 "hut-and Mutt" loss to the Bears but, of course, it was disallowed by Pete Rozelle, the National Football League commissioner.

Dan Desmond, publicity man of the Bears, scoffed at the protest and declared that the Rams were hearing strange voices.

"I've studied psychiatry," said Desmond, "and I know when you hear voices and have a persecution complex, you have paranoia. But Hollywood is a place with a lot of goofy people. The Rams should stay away from Hollywood and strange voices."

DESMOND MUST HAVE chuckled after reading those reports following last Sunday's game in Kezar Stadium when the 49ers protested they, too, heard strange Ram voices that jammed John Brodie's "go" signal.

Brodie sends the 49ers into action on a first, second or third "go." Maxie Baughan, the Ram defense captain who got a special tutoring lesson from George, kept hollering "snow," which does rhyme with "go" and, in the heat of battle, might be mistaken for it.

The 49ers, at least those who were unable to distinguish between Brodie's "go" and Baughan's "snow" were lured into several illegal motion penalties.

SO THE 49ERS LODGED a protest with Rozelle, just as the Rams did in 1960 against the Bears.

Does any football fan think the commissioner this time will silence defensive teams? Wouldn't such an edict infringe constitutional guarantees of free speech?

Huge Prep Fearsome Foursome

SANTA BARBARA (AP) — The Santa Barbara High School's unbeaten football team is famous for its goal line stands.

Coach Sam Cathcart puts four youngsters up front whose combined weight is 1,254 pounds.

By comparison, the professional Los Angeles Rams have a feared front four. But their combined weight is a mere 1,090 pounds.

Santa Barbara in winning seven games has scored 340 points. The enemy has been held to 65.

Here's the way Cathcart can discourage the opposition on goal line defense:

Bob "Big Man" Pointer, 447 pounds; Danny Herring, 312; Cyril Gavin, 265, and Al Reginato, 230.

"Actually," Cathcart explained today, "the big guy is the only starter but the other three play a lot, along with some other fine boys who make up the first and second teams."

MUST PASS

Santa Barbara's rivals generally run the ball. But not against Santa Barbara.

"Normally only seven or eight passes are thrown in a game, but last week Port Hueneme threw against us 31 times. Luckily we intercepted five and turned two into touchdowns."

Santa Barbara squeaked a 61-12 triumph over Hueneme.

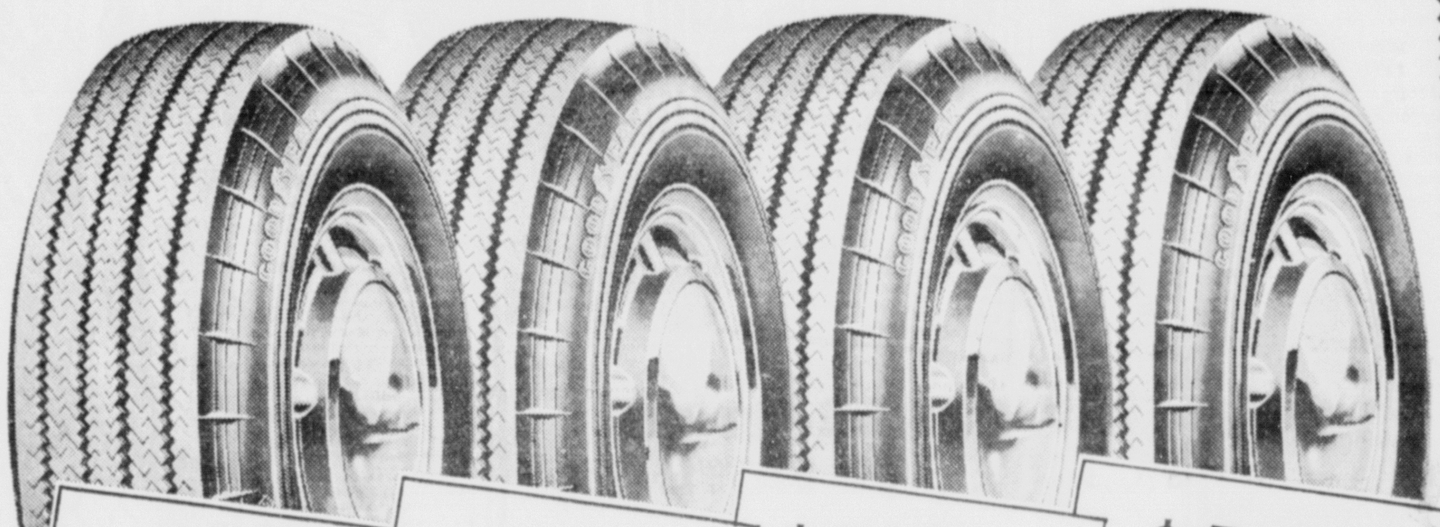

The professional Rams' recent weight chart lists its front four as Roger Brown, 295; David Jones and Lamar Lundy, 260, and Merlin Olsen, 275.

"But one team crossed us up," Cathcart recalled. "Buena Ventura after one play went into the 'shotgun.'"

The "shotgun" offense spreads the line wide apart and only the quarterback stands back to pass to the receivers. The defense was fast and agile.

"We got the big kids out of there as quick as possible," Cathcart concluded.

BOWLING TIPS

By DON CARTER

Perhaps you've wondered whether or not the thumb should fit all the way into its hole. Let me set your mind at ease — it should go all the way in for the best control. Bowlers who insert the thumb only part way move the palm away from the ball and lose consistency.

Davis Has Slim Lead In Winnings

Dave Davis of Phoenix, Ariz., leads with $42,865 and Jim Stefanich of Joliet, Ill., is second after picking up $1,300 for a third-place finish and a perfect game during the $30,500 Youngstown Open.

Rookie Mike Durbin of Costa Mesa, Calif., made the biggest jump in the standings released yesterday.

Durbin picked up $3,000 for his victory in Youngstown and moved up to eighth place with earnings of $22,015, an all-time high for a rookie on the tour.

The top pros will gather tomorrow for the $30,500 Plainville Jaycee Open in Plainville, Conn. First prize is $3,000.

The standings:

Pheasant Hunters: Start Looking For Site

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

California's annual pheasant frenzy will begin Nov. 18 with a reported bumper bird crop on hand.

Unfortunately, virtually all the choice habitat for these barley and rice-loving birds is privately owned, and the average man who doesn't belong to a club or have a rancher for a relative or friend had better start looking around for a place where he can shoot.

Probably the best bet for such a hunter is one of the 18 public shooting areas freckled throughout the state.

For a starter, if he doesn't mind traveling a bit, he might want to consider the huge federal refuges at Tule Lake and Lower Klamath along the Oregon border. Here you can hunt throughout the 16-day season at no charge.

However, the amount of acreage opened to ring-neck blasting will be cut considerably after the opening weekend.

Next, there are the four pheasant cooperative areas run by the Department of Fish and Game. Three are located in the lush Sacramento-San Joaquin delta—at Ryer, Tyler and Staten islands and at Grimes in Colusa County.

All will be open daily throughout the season on a first-come, first-served basis. You can hunt Ryer for free; there is a charge of $2 daily or $10 for the season on the other three.

Five state waterfowl management areas also will open their gates to the ring-neck chasers. Lassen County's Honey Lake will be opened on waterfowl shoot days only, Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays. Gray Lodge, Los Banos and Mendota will be huntable on Nov. 18-22, Nov. 24-26, Nov. 29 and Dec. 2-3. Grizzly Island will be open on the same dates for holders of waterfowl permits.

Fees on these areas run $3.50 daily.

Six federal wildlife refuges will be open to pheasant hunting on waterfowl shoot days throughout the season. These are the Colusa, Delevan, Sacramento, Sutter, Merced and San Luis sanctuaries.

Here again there is a $3.50 daily pheasant fee. The wise hunter will file in advance for duck reservations at the area of his choice to guarantee himself a chance at both species.

Two community - sponsored pheasant co-ops will open again this season. Father John McGoldrick's Willows Pheasant Association has control of thousands of acres of some of the best pheasant land in the state. Here, hundreds of birds will be planted to augment the natural population.

Fee for the entire season is only $10.

In the north, the Tule Lake Kiwanis Club is running a similar hunt on choice agricultural lands immediately adjoining the huge refuges.

Both Willows and Tule Lake will allow you to bring your youngster or wife along with you for free.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Role Of Investment Banker Explained

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Just what are investment bankers and what do they do? — G.L.

Investment bankers serve the long-term banking needs of corporations. They provide the organization and the secondary market through which a corporation can distribute its securities to the public in return for funds needed in business expansion. In contrast are the commercial banks from which corporations borrow on a short-term basis, say to meet a payroll or finance a seasonal inventory. When a corporation decides to sell publicly a sizeable amount of ts securities, an investment banking house will normally be called in to underwrite or conditionally guarantee the success of the issue. In larger issues many houses will participate. The investment banker's skill is vital in deciding the type of security to be issued, its price and its timing. After the details are worked out, the investment banker in most instances purchases the issue from the corporation, which receives its money in return. Next comes the job of retailing the issue to the public. This may be done by the original underwriters. In many cases, a larger selling group will be formed as other dealers are asked to join in the sales effort. The issue is then sold to the public in accordance with federal and state security laws.

We are in our 60s and own shares of Aluminum Co. of America. Should we hold or sell? — M.Z.

Aluminum producers still appear troubled by excess capacity and price weakness and this may take a while to work out. Alcoa shares have lost ground in the recent mixed market. Industry conditions should improve as the economy picks up, but action of the shares may be slow. I believe you would be better off if you switched this stock into Colgate-Palmolive, a very able merchandiser. Colgate makes a wide line of cleansers and toiletries and has had a pretty consistent record of earnings growth.

Rate Of Return From Education

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Education's rate of return is 11 per cent—far higher than most investments, the California Teachers Association reports.

Early Gains Trimmed At Closing Hour

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed in a scrambled state today with stocks retreating from big gains made in one of the most vigorous rallies of the year.

The ticker tape ran late in the closing minutes as traders dumped stock that was bought eagerly in the morning.

The market raced ahead in a tumultous postelection pay advance but the peak was reached in the first hour when the Dow Jones industrial average was up more than 9 points.

By the end, the gain in the Dow industrials was erased and an early 9-2 ratio in favor of gains over losses was canceled, leaving the plus and minus signs about even.

Volume for the first four hours was 9.43 million shares compared with 7.05 million for the like period Monday. The New York Stock Exchange was closed Tuesday for election day.

Gains outnumbered losses 2-1 in late dealings—a reduction of the early 9-2 margin.

The Dow Jones industrial average held a gain of two points or so compared with the rise of 9.54 at the end of the first hour.

Relief that the election was over and resulted in no disturbing news for the economy and the market was one factor in the sharp gain early in the day. Analysts noted, however, that nothing had changed fundamentally and the market would have to form a good base before a sustained rally could be mounted.

NANCY

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, Nov. 8, the 312th day of 1967 with 53 to follow.

The moon is in its first quarter. The morning stars are Venus and Jupiter. The evening stars are Mars and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1837, Mount Holyoke Seminary in South Handley, Mass., became the first college founded exclusively for women. The 80 students agreed to pay $64 a year for tuition and board.

In 1923, Adolf Hitler and his national storm troopers marched into a Munich beer hall and forced the Bavarian prime minister to swear loyalty to a Nazi revolution. The beer hall episode was short lived. The army broke up the meeting.

In 1942, some 400,000 allied soldiers invaded North Africa.

In 1965, an American Airlines jet crashed near Cincinnati, Ohio, killing 58 of the 62 persons aboard.

A thought for the day—

Samuel Butler once said: "We live to like love, all reason is against it, and all healthy instinct for it."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

HOW TO PLAY
WINNING BRIDGE

Believe It Or Not, Experts Can Also Have A Tender Heart

Few readers know what a tender heart their favorite bridge columnist has.

This heart compels me to withhold the name of the expert who held the South hand in the recent Team Selection Tournament in Atlantic City, N. J. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof, and that day is already a month in the past.

KIND PLAYER

I will, however, name the West player, Philadelphia expert Norman Kay, who earned a berth on the 1968 Olympic Bridge Team with his partner Edgar Kaplan of New York. Kay is known far and wide as the kindest-hearted bridge player in captivity, but you may want to take a second look at his heart after reading this story.

Kay led the six of hearts, and dummy's ten won the first trick. Declarer led a diamond from dummy for a finesse with the ten.

WITH JACK

Kay won with the jack and looked for a way out of the trap since it was obvious that seven club tricks would soon tumble into declarer's lap.

Kay switched to the deuce of spades since there was a remote chance that the defenders could take four spade tricks. Kaplan won with the ace and switched back to hearts, thus making it clear that South had good spades.

USELESS FINESSE

South took a useless finesse with the queen of hearts, losing to the king.

Kay knew that the situation was hopeless unless he could take South out of the hand. Kay therefore cashed the king of spades, deliberately setting up two tricks for South, and then maliciously led the nine of clubs through dummy's long suit.

Every reader of this column would take the club finesse and claim the rest of the trick. The actual declarer counted two spades, two hearts, one club and four diamonds if the suit broke favorable. So he refused the club finesse in order to go after the diamonds. Down one.

Fie on you, Norman Kay! (But do the same thing to the Italians next June.)

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with three clubs, and the next player passes.

You hold:
♠—K 8 6 2

♦—J 7
♣—K 9.

What do you say?

Answer: Pass.

Partner's bid shows less than a normal opening bid, and you also have less than a bid. Game is out of the question.

15 May Be Eligible For Community Aid

About 15 persons have been found possibly eligible for community aid because of their poverty, in a survey of San Gernomio Valley now 85 per cent completed by the San Geronimo Valley-Nicasio Target Area Action Board, a board official reported today.

A survey through questionaires and door-to-door canvasing in Woodacre, Lagunitas and Forest Knolls has shown, of the 800 to 900 persons covered, about 15 may be eligible for aid, said Mrs. Edwin F. Gardner, chairman of the valley target board.

Reporting on a meeting of the board last night, she said that the figure included the aged and the blind and noted that answers to the survey would be confidential.

The final survey tally will be reported at the next board meeting at 8 p.m. Dec. 5 at Lagunitas School. The scheduled meeting Nov. 21 has been cancelled because of the Thanksgiving holiday Nov. 23.

Water Board Told Income Below Par

The North Marin County Water District had less income and more expenses in the first quarter of this fiscal year than had been estimated in the budget, Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager reported last night to the board.

The net operating income had been estimated at $96,217 but was only $90,474, Gilbert said. Expenses had been budgeted at $148,252, but the district actually spent $151,926, he said. The $9,417 deficit will be met from reserve funds, he said.

The board accepted the annual audit from Soberblom and Co. of Novato. It reported that the district had assets of $10,644,268. Its liabilities were $3,895,000 in bonds sold; $3,673,875 construction by developers and individuals and $3,075,393 in district charges and revenues, which total $10,644,268, Gilbert reported.

The board voted to ask the Novato Unified School District Board for an eight-inch water main easement across the San Marin High School site to create a loop connection with the main coming down from Stafford Lake, sometime in the future, Gilbert said.

340,000 Returns On Income Tax

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state Franchise Tax Board said it has received 340,000 returns from California taxpayers who prepaid more than $128 million on their 1967 personal income tax.

Martin Huff, executive officer, said it had been estimated that about 80 per cent of the 370,000 persons to whom notices were mailed would make prepayments totaling about $115 million. Of the 30,000 payments no made some were due to taxpayers having less income this year, some had left the state, and some will be delinquent.

Delinquency penalties of 10 per cent of the amount of underpayment or non-prepayment will be assessed, as well as 6 per cent interest. Delinquency penalties will be assessed after the 1967 returns are filed next April 15 for those taxpayers who had a requirement to file an estimate and did not.

Silverthorne Bank Suit Is Tossed Out

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A $42 million suit brought by former president Don C. Silverthorne of the defunct San Francisco National Bank has been dismissed by a federal judge.

U.S. District Judge Robert Peckham ruled yesterday that Silverthorne had failed to include "indispensible parties" and to state a valid claim for damages in his suit against the Federal Home Loan Bank.

Silverthorne, acting as his own attorney, alleged that the Federal Home Loan Bank conspired with other large banks to withdraw their deposits which led to the closure of the San Francisco National Bank.

He did not seek damages for himself but asked for the $42 million on behalf of depositors, stockholders and creditors of National.

Silverthorne had been convicted of misapplication of bank funds and larceny. He has been free on bond pending outcome of an appeal.

A resident of Tiburon, Silverthorne was granted permission Oct. 23 by San Francisco Federal Court to travel to Nevada to look for work.

The office of his attorney, George Martinez, said today Silverthorne was in Nevada but maintaining his home in Marin County.

There were about 30,000 confirmed cases of cholera around the globe last year, according to the World Health Organization.

Hiking Trails Plan Outlined

Plans for hiking trails on land adjacent to the City of Fairfax were outlined to the city's park and recreation commission last night.

The trails would be located on Marin Municipal Water District land in back of Deer Park School, Pierre W. Joske, Marin County park and recreation director, told the commission.

The plan now will go for comment to the Fairfax City Council at its meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the women's club, said City Mgr. David J. Sumbardo.

Commissioners heard that drainage work on the city's Little League ball field would have to wait until after winter rains, Sumbardo reported today.

Chrysler Workers Go Out Before Deadline

DETROIT (AP) — More than 24,000 Chrysler Corp. workers jumped the gun today on a midnight strike deadline, closing down nearly a quarter of the No. 3 automaker's operations.

The walkouts at eight plants came as bargainers for the company and the United Auto Workers Union passed the 24-hour mark in a marathon attempt to write a new three-year contract before the deadline.

The mushrooming stoppages raised the possibility more of Chrysler's 103,000 UAW members would go out during the day even if quick agreement is reached and that Chrysler was likely to suffer substantial production loss.

Once agreement is reached on the national contract, local agreements must be written for 131 bargaining units at Chrysler's 17 plants in 12 states.

More than 100 of these remain to be settled.

There were no indication from the bargaining table as to what progress had been made in the session that started at 10 a.m. yesterday.

Negotiators are trying to fit to Chrysler a record three-year contract gained at Ford Motor Co. two weeks ago after a 46-day strike.

Ford is just now getting back into production because local agreements, like those at Chrysler, had not been settled when the national contract was signed.

Co-Chairman For Bond Drive

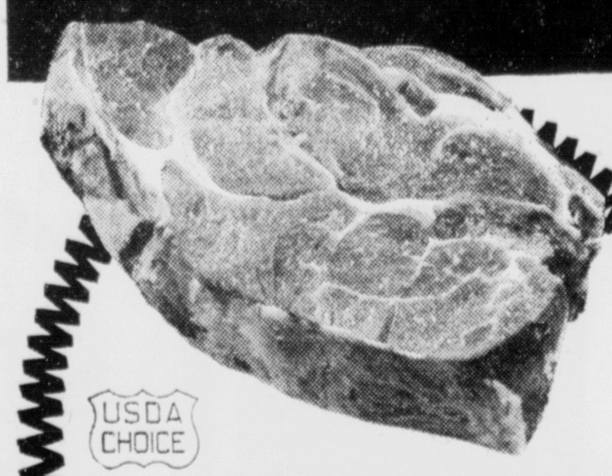

Ross Wright and Paul D. Fray were named co-chairmen of the Novato Citizens Steering Committee for the $8,000,000 bond election for streets and parks, by Mayor J. Wayne Womack at a meeting last night at the Novato Savings and Loan conference room.

Mrs. Carolyn Crabtree was named publicity chairman.

The committee picked Monday night of each week to meet, the place to be selected, Mrs. Crabtree said.

At the meeting next Monday, sub-committee chairmen will be selected, she said.

Federal Housing Board Ruling Will Be Fought

Officials of the Marin County Housing Authority will consult with federal officials to try to remove a federal block against plans to have a public housing tenant serve on the housing board.

The Federal Housing Assistance office has asked the county housing authority to postpone plans for the appointment, saying a tenant whose rents depend on authority action would have a conflict of interest serving on the board.

The housing authority board last night told Chairman George C. Goheen and executive director Donald O. Stutsman to consult with federal officials and attempt to change their minds.

The housing authority and the Marin County Redevelopment Agency each have plans for one member to resign and be replaced by public housing tenants from Marin City. The aim is to give tenants a voice on the policy-making boards.

The housing authority also accepted a report by consultants Callister and Payne that it would be feasible to develop a five-acre, 50-unit apartment development at the Hilarita project in Tiburon, but that 10 acres would not be feasible.

The authority will ask the City of Tiburon to rezone the acreage for the apartments. The development would be on three acres now held for the Reed Union School District, 10 single-family dwelling lots above Tiburon Boulevard, and an area along Tiburon Boulevard on the west part of the Hilarita site.

The authority also authorized renting a Drake Avenue building to Gregory Baines for a record shop and clothing store to be operated by Baines' Black Youth of Marin City. Rental will be $50 a month for a minimum of six months. It will take approximately two weeks to repair the fire-damaged building.

The Marin County Housing Authority also:

FINANCING — Approved a request by California Development Co. to defer payment of a $139,902 note until next Aug. 5. The note is part payment for purchase of ridgelands above Marin City.

SENIOR HOUSING—Saw site plans presented by William Cussin of O'Pizzi Realty of San Rafael for 40 units of low-income senior citizen housing in Northgate, at Golden Hind Boulevard and Los Ranchitos Road.

TROPHY — Agreed to provide a permanent trophy costing about $30 for a basketball league of the Southern Marin Boys Club and local churches.

Driver Fined $175

Alfred William Gallagher, 48, of 25 Atwood Avenue, Sausalito, was fined $175 and placed on six months probation yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. California Highway Patrol arrested him Oct. 26 on Highway 101.

Novato Jaycees Back City Bonds

Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce will support Novato's $8,000,000 bond issue for streets and parks at the special Jan. 23 election, Roger K. Hillman, Jaycee president announced today.

"As young adults in this community we are vitally concerned about the future of our city and we believe the passage of this bond issue is a definite step in the right direction toward the future welfare of the City of Novato," Hillman said.

Jaycees will ask the city council how it can help work toward the bond issue, he said.

The special bond issue will have two propositions on it. These are $5,750,000 for street improvements and $2,250,000 for parks.

Plans, Talk Expected Next Week On Federal Facility

Federal authorities expect to have plans for a federal facility in Marin City ready for discussion with local officials in approximately two weeks, the Marin County Redevelopment Agency was told last night.

Executive director Donald O. Stutsman said the Department of Housing and Urban Development is working on the plans although this summer federal officials said they were only in the "talking stage" and nothing concrete was imminent.

The agency last night saw preliminary studies for development of 50 non-residential acres in Marin City. The plans, drawn up by Donald Newmark, included provision for a federal building, a convalescent hospital, shopping facilities and recreational uses.

The Marin County Redevelopment Agency also:

RODEO AVENUE — Told Stutsman to urge authorities for development of a Rodeo Avenue access to Highway 101 and Tennessee Valley, so the road will be ready when ridgelands above Marin City are developed.

SHOPPING — Learned that California Development Co. has found financing of shopping facilities in Marin City is not now available under a federal law which offers low interest rates. The company agreed to hold open an option on one acre for a year to allow market owner Daniel Hayden or others to seek other financing for shopping facilities.

LOT SALE — Learned that a subdivision report is being prepared for state approval of plans to sell 12 residential lots in Marin City. Sale could start next week if necessary approvals are granted by then.

Marijuana Possession Arraignment Held

Toni Novak, 22, San Francisco, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on a felony complaint of marijuana possession. Preliminary hearing was scheduled for 8:30 a.m. Friday.

The defendant allegedly had a small quantity of marijuana when stopped by California Highway Patrol on Highway 101 Oct. 22.
